

Consultant is promoted

Jeffrey C. Rahmberg of Farmington Hills has been promoted to principal in management consulting services at Plante & Moran.

Rahmberg's consulting experience includes human resource administration, organization planning and operations analysis for private and public sector organizations. He worked for Whirlpool Corp. before joining Plante & Moran in 1977.

A certified management consultant, Rahmberg is president of the board of directors of Community Case Management Services Inc. and an executive board member of the Detroit Personnel Management Association. He also belongs to the American Compensation Association, the American Society for Personnel Administration and Beta Gamma Sigma, the national honorary business society.

Jeffrey Rahmberg

Rahmberg holds a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering and a master's in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri.

Michigan trip planned by train

The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMATA) is coordinating a scenic rail excursion through Michigan's north woods to Mackinaw City during the weekend of September 23-25. Tickets are on sale for $90 per person for the 600 mile round trip which is being co-sponsored by the Bluewater Michigan Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society, the Michigan Railroad Club and the Michigan Republican Party.

To purchase tickets or for more information, persons should call Windsor Travel Consultants, 35970 Quakerstown Lane, Farmington 48018. Telephone 313-963-1551. Tickets must be purchased by Sept. 15.

A package including the train trip and lodging is also available at $175 per person for two nights double occupancy at the Perry-Davis Hotel or the Holiday Inn in Petoskey or the Mackinac Hotel on Mackinac Island, including ferry service. Single occupancy rates are $230 per person.

The three day excursion, using SEMATA diesel locomotives and air-conditioned streamlined coaches, leaves Detroit's Renaissance Center Station at 9 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 23, with stops in Birmingham and Durand at 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. respectively. Arrival in Mackinaw City is 7 p.m. Passengers who transfer to the Petoskey leg of the trip will arrive there at 8:30 p.m.

THE TRIP will travel along sections of railroad that have not seen passenger service for more than 25 years, such as the section between Bay City to Mackinaw City over the former New York Central-Michigan Central line. The return trip is over part of the former Pennsylvania Railroad's Grand Rapids and Indiana subsidiary now owned by the State of Michigan. Some of the towns the train will pass through include West Branch, Beaver Lake, Roscommon, Reed City, Vanderbilt and Topinabee.

With the train will be dining car, the "Lake Michigan" which will serve cooked-to-order meals. The car is owned by the Bluewater Chapter, a non-profit railroad historical organization, and is used for excursion service.

For Petoskey passengers, ample time on Saturday and Sunday is available for shopping and sightseeing and on Saturday only, a short train trip is available from Petoskey along Little Traverse Bay to Charlevoix.

The train departs Petoskey at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 25, traveling by way of Reed City along the Michigan northern route, then taking the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad through Clare to Saginaw and the Grand Trunk Western to Durand, arriving there at 10:30 p.m., in Birmingham at 11:30 p.m. and at the Ren Cen at midnight.

Tiff pits neighbor against neighbor productive, Nichols said additional traffic patrols, as well as plainclothes officers will be assigned to the neighborhood, just as they were when the problem came to a head two years ago.

BUT NICHOLS says residents also must be more willing to press charges against those persons who they believe are causing the problems.

"This isn't just me and a couple of other housewives complaining," said Fink resident Sandy Garbarino. "It's all the responsible homeowners from 23-years-old on up."

One of the persons involved in the periodical parties has been charged with disorderly conduct upon the request of Garbarino.

A former Fink street resident who moved last week said the parties at the intersection of Fink and Stockton could happen just about any time day or night.

"They are breaking bottles at 5:30 on Thursday morning sometime," said Larry Mason.

Another neighbor, who wished to remain anonymous, said the partying has been especially bad this summer.

"They put oil on the street and break bottles. They make threatening remarks. We've had to watch each other houses like crazy," said the neighbor.

"This hasn't been a great summer."

Nichols said that much of the reason why the young people, who range from their teens to early 20s, congregate near Fink and Stockton is that the Westlake subdivision is somewhat isolated.

In the past, when additional patrols have been added to the neighborhood, Nichols said, the youths "backed off." But as soon as the extra patrols were eased, the kids were back. Residents, however, claim that this summer's activity has brought the situation to a head.

The residents, Nichols said, are particularly concerned about the drug situation with one neighbor complaining that he saw a youth offer marijuana to the younger children.

"They are concerned about the effect this has on their youngsters," Nichols said.

So the plainclothes police officer's duties will be "to find out particularly about the drug problem."

Some neighbors also believe that a number of stolen goods and break-ins are related to the parties which take place in the neighborhood.
