WIN A FREE TORONTO TRIP — To be eligible for this trip for two, all you need to do is sign up for one of our exciting programs. With every program registration you get a free raffle ticket. You can win two nights in the Sheraton Centre and a beautiful train ride. Additional raffle tickets available for $1. Trip is compliments of The Travel Agent, Birmingham.

BACK TO SCHOOL SLEEPOVER — Bring a friend, have fun, see a movie and take a late-night dip in the pool. Activities include gym games, swimming, movies and pizza party. All for one price. All youth should bring swimsuit, towel, and sleeping bag. Ages 8-12. 8 p.m. to 9 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 24. Fee for members is $8 and non-members $12.

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT — High school students only. Learn about your state government through actual experience. Students who participate learn about government through participation. They write bills, elect state officers, senators, a youth governor, press agents and more. Each spring they travel to Lansing to learn about government, first-hand. All students who join are required to be Y members. For more information, contact Vic, 553-4020. Informational meetings at the Y at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 12.

YMCA FLAG FOOTBALL — Everybody plays, everybody wins. Youth flag football is a safe, exciting team game in which each child plays equal time in every game. Coached by trained volunteers, flag football is designed to work with each player on basic skills along with fair play. The contact is limited, and winning is kept in perspective. Grades two through three; junior varsity, grades four, five, varsity. Register Sept. 1-18. Season begins Monday, Sept. 19. Opening game is Oct. 1 (games on Saturday). Cost for members is $15 and non-members $20. Practices held at area schools once a week after school. Equipment is provided by the YMCA.

MEN'S 30 AND OVER FLAG FOOTBALL — Organized league that involves teams of seven. Each participant must be at least 30 years of age by Saturday, Oct. 1. Played on Sundays after 5 p.m. and starts Oct. 2. Registration is today through Sunday, Sept. 25. Fee for members is $25 and non-members is $30; team $200. You may register as an individual or as a team. Individuals will be placed on a team. Call Dave at 553-4020 for more information.
