Test your memory of the better films

"Metalstorm," "Yor," "Strange Brew," "Hercules," "Getting It On." It takes fortitude to confront the late nummer crop of movies. Going from one theater to another, one feels like a sea slug moving among bottom dwellers.

But things were not always this way. At least, there was not always such an awesome concentration of schlock product. Looking back over better days with more interesting movies, see how you fare with this movie quiz.

what's at the movies

CUJO (R). Supsense and thrills in movie based on story by Stephen King.

EASY MONEY (R). Rodney Dangerfield as Monty Capuletti can inherit millions but only if he gives up drinking, smoking and inherit millions but a gambling for a year.

FLASHDANCE (R). A determined young woman works as a welder by day and a dancer by night. Movie doesn't make too much sense but the dancing makes a terrific impact.

GETTING IT ON (R). Two boys with active imaginations and overactive glands indulge in crazy capera on campus. Martin Yost and Heather Kennedy star in comedy written and directed by William Olsen.

MR. MOM (PG). Micheal Keaton is a rising young executive who gets pink-slipped and trades jobs with his wife, a housewife and mother, who then goes out to work.

NATIONAL LAMPOON'S VACATION (B). Walley World, the world's greatest theme park, is the destination in this cross-country comedy starring Chevy Chase, Beverly D'Angelo, Imogene Coca and Christie Brinkley.

NIGHT OF THE ZOMBIES. Journey into the realm of the undead, starring Frank Garfeld, Margit Newton and Selan Karay. Di-rected by Vincent Dawn.

RETURN OF MARTIN GUERRE. Winner of three French Academy Awards, romantic mystery is about man who returns from war after nine years. Gerard Depardleu stars.

RETURN OF THE JEDI (PG). Third chapter in the middle section of George Lucas' "Star Wars' trilogy. With Luke Skywalker, Hans Solo, Princess Lela and other characters from the previus films as the Rebel Alliance battles Darth Vader and the forces of the Empire.

RISKY BUSINESS (B). Contemporary comedy about high-school students who take chances on love, sex and free enterprise, and eventually come of age.

SNOW WHITE (G). Disney's classic animated feature about a princess, a magic mirror, seven dwarfs, a witch and a prince. The 1936 film still ranks as one of the best, perhaps the best, animated features ever made. Every child deserves to see this and adults should treat themselves to a repeat viewing.

STAR CHAMBER. Hal Holbrook, Yaphet Kotto and Michael Doug-las star in story of judges who take matters into their own hands when they decide the judicial system isn't working right.

STAYING ALIVE (PG). John Travolta recreates the role of Tony Manero, now struggling in the competitive world of Broadway dancers, in this sequel to "Saturday Night Fever."
