

Variety of day classes offered at community school

The Ten Mile Community School has launched another season of classes.

Classes begin the week of Monday, Sept. 19. You may register either by mail or in person at the Ten Mile School, 32789 10 Mile, Farmington 48024.

Register before the first class period by mail using the appropriate registration form. Registration also will be received at Ten Mile Community School, starting Wednesday, weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. or 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Fees are payable at the time of registration. No further notification will be given mail registrants. Plan to attend the first class meeting.

Refunds will be granted when classes are cancelled. All other requests for refunds must be made to the Community Education Office before the second class meeting. A $2 registration fee will be deducted in the case of withdrawal.

Farmington School District resident senior citizens (60 or older) are eligible for one free registration except in limited enrollment classes (indicated by a *). Seasoned Citizens Cards and identification numbers (available at the Ten Mile Community School) must be procured prior to registration.

Following is a list of day classes, their times and tuition. A list of evening classes will appear in the Thursday Farmington Observer.

Baby sitting for children 2-5 years of age is available to parents enrolled in daytime enrichment classes 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at a rate of $15 per 10-week two-hour class. Baby-sitting fees are payable at the time of registration. Refunds will not be made unless class is cancelled.

Saying thanks

Botsford Inn owner John Anhut, after more than 30 years of operating the historic crossroads location, gave a party Wednesday to say thanks to friends, families and business associates. More than 200 persons showed up at the elegant affair which featured dinner and dancing. Here Anhut takes a time out to say thanks to some of his employees who have worked for him over the years.

INSIDE ANGLES

LISA JEAN OLIVERI, daughter of Dr. Eugene and Mary Ann Oliveri of Farmington Hills, has been accepted to Interlochen Arts Academy. Lisa will pursue studies in dance.

LORI S. ARABIAN of Farmington Hills has received the Academic Achievers Award from Western Michigan University. "The Academic Achievers Award is intended to recognize and reward incoming freshmen at Western who record in high school are outstanding," said Dr. Edward W. Harkender, director of student financial aid and scholarships. The award is one way of saying "Congratulations on a job well done."

MARINE CORPS CAPT. Stephen David Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Hanson of Farmington Hills, recently reported for duty at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. He will be the 26th Company Officer with the office of the Commandant of Midshipmen. He joins a group of highly dedicated commissioned officers who work closely with midshipmen on a day-to-day basis. A 1973 graduate of the Naval Academy, Hanson served as assistant maintenance officer at Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Calif., prior to reporting to the academy. He graduated from Redford Union High School in 1969 and received a master's degree from the University of Michigan in 1979.

PICK UP YOUR entry forms now for Hudson's NFL/Detroit Lions Mascot Program in Hudson's NFL Team Shops. A mascot will be selected for each Lions home game. The winner receives two game tickets, a ride around the field in the Lions helmet cart, his or her name in lights on the scoreboard, and a gift package from the Lions. Entry forms available now through Friday, Sept. 30.

ADVENTURISTS don't have to head west to experience the thrill of whitewater kayaking. On Sept. 19, the Waterford Oaks Wave-Action Pool will be the site of the third annual Kayak Slalom Race sponsored by the Farmington Hills Parks & Recreation Canoe and Kayak Club and the Oakland County Parks and Recreation Commission. Registration fee is $5 for the first event and an additional $2.50 for an optional second event. Registration and practice begins at 8:30 a.m. and continues until 11 a.m. The races begin at 11:30 a.m. For further information, contact Dave Justus at the Farmington Hills Parks & Recreation Department at 474-6115, Ext. 208.

DESCENDANTS of the Katcher family credit Esther Sperber and Dode Harris, both residents of Farmington Hills, for the success of their family reunion. The family stems from the Russian Ukrainian town of Pogrebische and now bear about 27 various surnames. About 150 of the family were brought together during the last week in August by a committee of persons who now reside in the Detroit metropolitan area. Planning for the reunion took about one year.

CONGRATULATIONS to David

Schroeger of Farmington Hills, who won first place in the Feature Display floriculture exhibit category at the Michigan State Fair with a bouquet of silk flowers based on a harvest theme.

NOW IS THE TIME to clean out your closets. The Farmington Community Center's Second Edition Resale Shop will open for business Tuesday. The volunteer staff has been working, during the month of August, preparing the shop for a "Big Sale" opening. Make sure the clothes are clean and seasonable. Clothes with holes or spots will not be accepted. The Second Edition accepts merchandise on consignment, with a 50-50 split when and if clothing is sold; or you may wish to donate the clothing and claim a tax deduction. All proceeds go to the Farmington Community Center.

MARY WHITE, founding mother of WomenCenter on Orchard Ridge Campus, will not be on campus as its director this year; the first time she's been away from the post since WomenCenter's inception seven years ago. The college has awarded her a full year sabbatical so she won't be back until next summer. Meantime, Sadie Davis, OCC's sociology instructor and a longtime supporter of the center, is taking over as acting-director.

THE FREE LEGAL Clinic offered through WomenCenter, on Orchard Ridge Campus, OCC, opens for the fall Tuesday, Sept. 13. Attorney Vicky Buckfire will be in Room 308 in Building at 7 p.m. the second Tuesday of each month to answer questions about legal issues.

CRANBROOK HOUSE will be open for tours 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 25. Reservations are not necessary for those wishing to go through the home of George and Ellen Scripps Booth designed in 1908 by Albert Kahn. The home of Cranbrook's Founders is on Lone Pine Road, west of Woodward.

THE EXCHANGE CLUBS Council of the Michigan District will be having the annual outdoor championships for model airplanes, including rocket planes on Sunday, Sept. 11, from 9 a.m. continuously until 5 p.m. The event will be held at the Ford Motor Test Track in Utica (Van Dyke Road between 22 and 23 Mile roads). Co-sponsors for these championships with the Exchange Clubs Council are Ford Motor Co. and the Civil Air Patrol, and the event is sanctioned by the Academy of Model Aeronautics. Because of the keen competition, modelers will come from all over Michigan as well as surrounding states and Canada. Special small model kits will be available for the beginner. Under the supervision of expert modelers, they can be built and flown right at the test track. The only cost for this event is a minimal parking fee.
