

FOR BURGERS that are nicely browned, yet

10 minutes. Cool. Divide ground beef into 8 equal portions and form into patties 4 inches in diameter. Spoon an equal amount of mushroom sauce in center of 4 patties. Top with remaining patties. Press edges together securely to seal. Place on grill over ash-covered coals so patties are 5 to 6 inches from coals. Broil 5 to 6 minutes, to doneness desired. Turn and season. Meanwhile cut lettuce into four 1-inch crosswise slices or rafts. To serve, place a patty on each lettuce raft. 4 servings.

stuffed beefburgers on rafts of crisp lettuce

Looking for something special to satisfy hearty outdoor appetites? Don't over look lamb.

Lamb loin and rib chops are great on the grill as are sirloin chops. Or stretch the budget with thrifty arm and blade lamb chops. Delicious and economical, too, are lamb riblets and patties made with ground lamb. Kabobs, made with chunks of lamb, are also sure to appeal. If you have a rotisserie unit, treat the outdoor crowd to a boneless shoulder roast or boneless leg roast cooked to a turn over the
