

St. Alexander parish readies festival days

St. Alexander Catholic Church of Farmington Hills is sponsoring its sixth annual fall festival Friday-Sunday, Sept. 23-25.

Always a successful event, the festival offers rides, games, contests, foods, bingo, casino and entertainment. A special attraction this year will be a live presentation of "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," featuring young actors from several neighboring parishes.

Saturday's entertainment line-up includes "D.O.A. W," an Irish folk and sing-along group.

In the social hall, continuous bingo games run with arts and crafts specials and "Merry Mary's Kitchen." The Flying Nun Casino can be found in the basement of the convent. The host of rides again found on the midway, with a pay-one-price, offers rides all day for $5.

Parent-tot program launched by library

Read your Constitution

Quakertown Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution remind all citizens that the freedoms of religion, press and speech and the right of redress and assembly are guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution. Citizens must be vigilant to protect their rights and freedoms; for once lost, they can never be regained, the DAR says.

Women Painters show at Art Association

Birmingham Society of Women Painters is combining art and community service this month. The newly renovated gallery of the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association is the setting for the group's annual exhibition. The Hospice of Southeastern Michigan is the beneficiary of a special project by the Women Painters.

The opening reception for the exhibition will be 2-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 18. This year's juror was Gertrude Kaale, art dealer. The exhibit will continue through Oct. 15.

Jo Snyder, public relations coordinator for the Women Painters, said the group has donated a large work of art to the Hospice, a facility for the care of the terminally ill in Southfield.

Thirty separate works of art done by the members of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters were collaged into a 6-by-6 foot canvas that was added to the art collection at the Hospice.

The works used in the collage vary widely in texture, medium and process used.

All of the women are serious artists. Some teach and many are consistent award winners who show their work both here and abroad.
