Lakes Division

lst week features important match-ups

ataff writers

HURSTON OVER Walled Lake Western — who'd a thunk it? That was just a sample of the frustration suffered by your expert (?) prognosticators last week.

The week was not a total washout, however. Emons was 8-6 last week, upplog his season mark to 18-11. McCoaky, suffering costly losses thanks to North Farmington, Clarenceville, North Farmington, Clarenceville, and Thurston, west 7-7. The rookid on a Thurston, wholes (Northwest Suburban Lesgue game predictions appear on page 10);

tions appear on page IC;

WALLED LAKE CENTRAL at LIVONIA BENTLEY (7:30 p.m. Priday). Who can figure out Bentley from wock to week.

Unbeaten Walled Lake, meanwhile, is no longer a pretender anymore in the Lakes Division of the WLAA. Quarterback Tom Menard threw for 161 yards and two touchdowns in last week 32-13 who over North Farmington.

But beware, Bentley beat Central last year on a Chad Darke field goal with 10 seconds left. Picks — McCosky likes Central by a TD, while Emons disagrees, Bentley by three again.

CLARENCEVILLE at LUTHERAN EAST (7:30 p.m. Friday). The Trojans were impressive in beating Lutheran North as juntor Rob McCamant made 18 tackles from his "Tiger Back" spot. Lutheran East is coming off a 21-6 defeat to Metro Conference favorite Detroit Country Day. Picks — McCoaky likes East by three, while Emons takes Clarenceville by six.

PLYMOUTH CANTON at LIVONIA CHURCHILL (1730 pm. Friday). Both teams are 0.2, but fine new life as the WLAA schedule begins. Canton moved the ball well against Salem, but couldn't put it in the end zone. Churchlill, meanwhile, moved the ball too late in a 21-7 loss to Ann Arbor Huron. The colin please. Pichs—McCosky sticks by Canton in a three-pointer. Emons likes Churchill because of the home field in OT.

LIVONIA STEVENSON at PLYM-OUTH SALEM (7:30 p.m. Friday). An early season Lakes Division showdown as both teams are unbeated. The two lines are small, but quick. It's wishbone versus pro-style. Stevenson can pass with quarterback Dan Gilmartin, while Salem ilkes the pitch and run. The key for Salem could be quarterback Mark Thidail. The coin please. Picks — McCosky likes the Rocks by six. Emons goes with Steven-son by seven.

FARMINGTON HARRISON at grid predictions

NORTHULLE (7:30 p.m. Friday). Another WIAA showdown featuring unbeaten teams.
Northville clobbered Thurston in its opener (47-0) and followed up with a come-from-behind 14-10 win over Westland John Glenn.
Harrison, the state's top-ranked Harrison, the state's top-ranked Class A team, needs to shore up its passing game and can't underestimate Northville, which is playing at home. Picks — McCosky and Emoss like Harrison by 14 and nine, respectively.

FARMINGTON vs. WALLED LAKE WESTERN (7:30 p.m. Friday at Walled Lake Centrail. Western still may be in shock after losing to Thurston, while Farmington played well in a 21-0 loss to Harrison.

The Falcons are 1-1 and have a stin-gy defense, but the offense is still lack-ing. Picks — McCosky and Emons agree. Farmington by two and eight, respectively.

BISHOP BORGESS at MADISON HEIGHTS BISHOP FOLEY (2:30 p.m. Saturday). The Spartans are now 2-0, boasting a high-powered running attack led by Chuck Gregory and Fred

Foley is coming off a 10-7 overtime win against Center Line St. Clement. Borgess continues to look like a con-tender. Picks — McCoaky and Emons like Borgess by 10 and 12, respectively.

Like Borgess by 10 and 12, respectively.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL vs. DEARBORN DIVINE CHILD (7:30 p.m. Saturday at Clarenceville). The Shamrocks rebounded in high style, beating Ypalianti, 7-0, dropping Eric Ball's rushing total from 296 to 38 in one week.

Divine Child is 1-1. The Falcons opened with a tough 3-0 loss to Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher, but drilled Ecorse last week, 35-0, as Sean Laboutains scored 2 TDs and rushed Lawis, gained 114 in the CC win. Should Lewis, gained 114 in the CC win. Should be another hard hitting, officially with the CC by three and Emons agrees, but by 12.

REDPORD ST. AGATHA vs. ALLEN

REDFORD ST. AGATHA VS. ALLEN PARK CABRINI (2:30 Sunday at Allen Park). Class B Cabrini (2:0) has one of the state's top passers in Terry An-the state's top passers in Terry Andryslak.

"He (Andryslak) is super and they're an excellent team," asid Agatha coach John Goddard. "If we play like we did last week (a '7-6 loss to Redford St. Mary's.) we couldn't beat the 'Little Sisters of the Poor." Picks — Emons and McCosky like Cabrin by 12 and eight points, respectively.

Men's All-stars sound warning for new season

There is no question about it now. The all time records in the Detroit area are in danger and the bowling season is only a month old.

The first warning came in the men's all-star classic when the Stroh team posted a 3532 series at Astro Lanes. Then, the women came to the fore when Caeryl Danlels, bowling with women all stars, came through with a 781 at Lurury Lane. This is only six pins shy of the record posted last season by Penny Behn. Cheryl also holds fourth place on the all time list with a 773 bowled in the 1981-82 season.

THE HIGH SCORING predicted before the season opened is showing up with each succeeding week. For example, not a week goes by that several more sharpshooters are admitted to the 700 club.

It used to be a great achievement when a bowler fashioned a 700. It is becoming a bit common place now.

Two more members were admitted this week when Chuck O'Rourke fired a 741 in the men's league at Merri-Bowl and Tim Nippa came through with a 704 at Woodland lanes.

O'Rouke had a middle game of 279 and Nippa was helped by an opening 257.

GARDEN LANES. Bruno De Nambro missed the coveted 700 club by just three pins while firing in the Parents without Pariners league. He had a 268, but couldn't get the last three pins.

Among the other high counts Marvin Stone had a 630 in the Road Commission loop and Mora Via turned in a 595 to pace the women's league.

MERRI-BOWL. While Chuch O'Rouke fired his 741 there were others who did well. Steve Mitchell topped the Saturday night loop with 691 and Brad Lloyd had a 285 single while Randy Smith turned in a 555 with a 278 game in the men's doubles.

WOODLAND LANES, Judy Honhert showed t way in the Early Birds loop with a 243 in 534 as Sharon Barliakos had a 240 for high single.

WESTLAND Bowl Tom Wojcowksi was high man in the all star loop with a 635 and Dave Barnhardt paced the Mooday Men with a 605. The best bowling of the week came in the youth league where Dave Burgo showed the way with 636 and John Berlouggre had high single with 235.

OTHER GOOD SHOWINGS. Gladys Siekas took top place for the week in in the Bel-Aire women's classic with a $50. Jack Van Buhler was aided by a 213 middie game to pace the Super Bowlers at the Super Bowl with a $62.
