Actor films TV spots in Troy

(Above) Actor William Schallert relaxes between takes during filming of TV commercials for Arbor Drugs Tuesday at a Troy store at 18 Mile and Dequindre. Schallert flew in from California to do the spots, created by Kolon, Bitter & Desmond Advertising, Inc., of Troy. The series of commercials will air shortly. Schallert, who is president of the Screen Actors Guild, has appeared on television as the father on both the "Patty Duke Show" and "Nancy Drew." He also has starred in movies including "The Twilight Zone," "Heat of the Night" and "Lonely Are the Brave." He will be seen in October on the TV movie "Through Naked Eyes."
