Physician chosen as health leader

Dr. Don Richard Powell of Farmington Hills, executive director of the American Institute for Preventive Medicine, has been honored as a Healthy American Fitness Leader by the U.S. Jaycees. The national award was given to Powell for his contributions as one of the country's foremost authorities on cigarette smoking. Powell is credited with having developed effective ways to stop smoking. His procedures are currently used by more than 200 U.S. hospitals and corporations. He also helped design a cardiovascular risk reduction project for the U.S. Air Force.

The Healthy American Fitness Leaders awards are given each year to 10 individuals who have demonstrated leadership in some areas of physical fitness and health.
