Put up or shut up

Key inter-league games highlight grid week

By Chris McCosky
and Brad Emons
staff writers

BORGES AGAINST Catholic Central, Bentley vs. Stevenson, North Farmington at Redford Union, John Glenn at Garden City, — brother, there is some good football on tap this weekend.

Yes sir, we are getting into the thick of the league schedules and the action is heating up.

Hopefully, your peerless prognosticators will heat up along with it.

McCosky is showing signs of improvement. He pushed his seasonal average above 500 with an 8-4 showing last week. He stands at 21-18 on the year.

Emons went 7-5, making him 22-17 on the year.

Here are the picks:

LIVONIA BENTLEY at LIVONIA STEVENSON (7:30 p.m. Friday). Bentley won this game last year, 2-0.

Both teams are coming off disheartening losses. Bentley to Walled Lake Central, 25-16, and Stevenson to Plymouth Salem, 21-13. The loser this week could find itself in big trouble in the WLA. Picks — Emons and McCosky go for Stevenson by six and 10 respectively.

PLYMOUTH SALEM at LIVONIA CHURCHILL (7:30 p.m. Friday). Did Salem coach Tom Moshimer give us all a snow job or what? Before the season started Moshimer talked about his team's lack of size, depth and experience.

After three games, the Rocks are 3-0 and have looked very strong.

Their wishbone attack will have to run through a pretty stiff Churchill defense. In their 14-4 victory last week, the Chargers held Canton below 90 yards on the ground. Picks — Emons likes Salem by 11, McCosky gives it to the Rocks by seven.

WESTLAND JOHN GLENN at GARDEN CITY (7:30 p.m. Friday). These two teams played some mighty fine football at the Silverdome last Saturday. John Glenn may have found itself a game-breaker in sophomore Tony Boies, and Garden City has a game-breaker in quarterback John Romanow. The coin picks — Emons says Glenn will Boies 'em over by seven.

McCosky says GC coach Dean Shipman will find a way to slow Boies down, and win by six.

NORTHVILLE at PLYMOUTH CANTON (7:30 p.m. Friday). This was supposed to be the year the Chiefs break that magical 500 barrier. But, Canton has lost its first three contests against Bentley, Salem and Churchill, all hard-fought, close contests. Could this be the week the Chiefs break loose?

Probably not. Northville (2-1) played inspired football against Harrison last week. If not for John Miller, Harrison would have had all of 73 yards total offense. Picks — Emons and McCosky like Northville by nine and six, respectively.

grid

NORTH FARMINGTON at REDFORD UNION (7:30 p.m. Friday). North finally played the kind of football game everyone knew it was capable of. The next question is, can it play that way consistently?

RU outplayed Glenn in the first half last Saturday, but they couldn't stop Tony Boies in the second. You have to wonder if they can stop North's Ken Goss?

A lack of passing prowess, uncharacteristic of RU teams, may hurt the Panthers in this contest. Picks — Emons likes North by seven. McCosky takes North by 14.

FARMINGTON at WALLED LAKE CENTRAL (7:30 p.m. Friday). Farmington "should have" beat Walled Lake Western last week, but they tripped over their own mistakes. Things won't be any easier this week. Wayne Adams may have a field day for Central. Picks — Emons and McCosky take Central by 12 and 17 respectively.

CRANBROOK at LIVONIA

CLARENCEVILLE (7:30 p.m. Friday). Cranbrook is 3-0, winning its last 190 via the shutout.

"Our scouts say they have good size, speed and they are an experienced team," said Trojans coach Ralph Weddie. "They do everything well, they can run and pass."

Enough said. Picks — Emons likes Cranbrook by eight. McCosky likes Cranbrook by 10.

WALLED LAKE WESTERN at FARMINGTON HARRISON (7 p.m. Saturday). The Hawks will be going for its 27th consecutive win, but more importantly, they have some things they would like to prove to their critics and to themselves. They would like to prove they can kick extra points and field goals, and they would like to prove they can throw the football. Look out Western. Picks — It's unanimous, Harrison by 20.

LIVONIA FRANKLIN at REDFORD THURSTON (1 p.m. Saturday). Franklin will be hungry following last week's loss to Garden City. They have got to prove that they are better than their 1-2 record suggests. Thurston has to do some serious regrouping after last week's slaughter against North. Picks — Again, it's unanimous. Franklin by 16.

ST. AGATHA at ANN ARBOR GABRIEL RICHARD (7:30 p.m. Saturday). For the second week in a row, the Aggies have their hands full. Picks — Emons likes Richard by 12, McCosky likes 'em by six.

rolling on in

The wave of high scoring that has marked the bowling scene since the start of the season continued last week when seven members of the Bel-Aire class earned their way in to the 700 club.

This was the high mark for Bel-Aire, but it was the 700 series short of the performance of the Wonderland sharpshooters the previous week.

Those who scattered the series were made by Jim Kepene with 771, Fred Rincoe with 727, Dan Brandenburg with 719, Rusty Howes with 714, Ron Aman with 711, Randy Ortwin with 704 and John Trend with 702.

MERRI-BOWL: Kevin Barksdale profited by a 278 opening game and posted a 686 to place the men's doubles. Other good showings were made by Linda Henderson with 553 in the Belles loop, Ron Nolan who had high single of 247 in the truckers league and Steve Kaszowski with a 266 in the Thursday men's loop.

WOODLAND LANES: While Walt Smith was high with his 704 series, Dave Tomlin was next in line with a 692 in the Ford league. In the high singles Joe Dorron had a 278 in the merry mates and Ed Degg posted a 267 in the dukes circuit.

WESTLAND BOWL: Dan Emmett paced the Friday classic with a 267 middle game in 693. Next in line came Don Daugherty with 681 and Steve Huble with 667. Monday men were led by Don Castaldi with 617, while Larry Arpi and George Meyers deked out at 642 in the early Monday morning men's league.

GARDEN LANES: Barbara Smith showed the way in the ladies classic with 620 and Margaret Porter was next in line with a 267 in 692. Don Curra was top man in the St. Linus league with a 247 in 658.

SUPER BOWL: While Terry Eiden stole the show with his 740, Ron Dalaric took top honors in the Junior house league with 661 and Norma Stolsen had a 233 for high single among the ladies.

COUNTRY LANES: Walt Makowski was top man in the Evergreen loop with a 265 in 645. Audrey Sarda was tops in the ladies league with a 243 high game and Ann Bogenschütz fired a 572 to lead the other ladies league.
