

Musicals hosts tour of American music

Members of Farmington Musicals have packed their evening bags for a progressive tour of "America the Musical."

Friday, Oct. 7, is the date and 7:30 p.m. is the time for departure. Three buses will host the evening for members, their husbands, and guests. All three are in the same area.

The first stop will be Broadway, where May Arvo will begin "That's Entertainment." "New York, New York" will be one of several of Broadway tunes included by the soprano. Elmore Skillman and Dorothy Whaley will take turns at the organ and piano. The two will play everything from rag to rock, ending things there with a fantasy of four hands at one keyboard.

Nancy Downie and her fiddle will be waiting as the group goes "Down Home" for selections including Dixie land and gospel tunes.

The final destination will be Main Street USA and a trip to the "Barber's Shoppe." The Mello Macs, a quartet of two men and two women, will sing several up-to-date tunes, barbershop standards and spirituals to provide a picture of today's barbershop music. Members Don and Carollee McDaniel and Don and Marvella McEachin have been together three years as a singing group. Ann Torres will top off the tour with a departure sing-a-long.

Light refreshments will be served. A $2.50-per-person charge will cover the evening. Persons interested in joining the festivities can make reservations by calling Fern Barber 681-4604.

The Farmington Musicals is a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs and the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs.

Arts, crafts, and open house planned

Joan Lawrens Needlepoint hosts an Art and Craft Fair Sunday, Oct. 9, with open house from noon to 6 p.m.

"The Yellow House," at 40500 13 Mile Road in Novi, will be open with a special sale of canvases. Craftsmen and artists will show art work on the lawn. Many will demonstrate their craft and will be glad to answer questions.

Some of the crafts to be shown are embroidery, quilting, chair caning, wood carving, wood working, rug hooking, pressed flowers, ceramics, wood burned sketches and needlepoint canvas painting. Just for fun, there will be cider and donuts, candied apples, pop corn and pumpkins for sale.

Cookbook goes into second printing

"Holy Cross of Farmington Hills Salad Cookbook" is now in its second printing. The book is a compilation of the favorite and most prized salad recipes of members of the church's auxiliary and their friends.

The collection of 80 ethnic and American salads was put into a soft cover book by the ladies auxiliary.

It is also available by sending a check for $5 which covers postage and handling, made payable to Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Church, 35225 Middlebelt, Farmington Hills 48016, or by calling the church, 477-1677.
