club circuit

"TOUGH LOVE, a self-help group for parents, meets at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays in Farmington City Hall, Grand River west of Farmington Road. There is no charge. Parents are invited to sit in on a group session any Thursday night, led by facilitator Maria Schneider.

THIN SIGHT, which teaches techniques of behavior modification to lose weight, meets at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays in First United Methodist Church of Parmington, Grand River and Warner. A doctor who specializes in obesity and a psychologist are on hand to lead sessions in nutrition, exercise, dieting and attitudes which cause weight gain or loss.

loss. Proceeds are earmarked for the All lirst visits are given without group's family Christmas party.

EPILEPSY SUPPORT PROGRAM, a self-help group, meets at 7:30 tonight in All Saints Lutheran Church, 8850 Newburgh, Livonia, Meetings are open to anyone interested in, concerned with, or facing the problems of life as an ecileptic.

Inquiries are taken by Joanne Mei-ster, 522-1940.

FARMINGTON AMERICAN LE-GION GROVES WALKER POST 348 and its auxiliary meet at 8 tonight in American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River.

SPINNAKERS, a group for single adults, plans a canoe trip down the Au Sable River Oct. 7-9.

"Members will leave Northville respirerian Church parking lot early Friday to car pool to Wyandette Lodge near Grayling and return Sunday afternoon.

noon.

Newcomers are welcome to join the canoe trip by calling the church office, 349-0911.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS meet

6 named 'commended'

Mercy High School has been notified that six of its students have been desig-nated as "Commended Students" in the 1984 National Merit Scholarship Pro-gram.

The six are Ann Babington, Marisa Bahn, Anne Bogan, Sarah Hackett, Marcia Metz and Robalee Monroe.

The students placed in the top 5 per-legat of the more than 1 million who participated in the 29th annual merit at 9 am. Fridays in Woman's Center, Building J. Orchard Ridge Campus, Oakland Community College. The group welcomes men and women who have a deaire to lose weight, or stop eating compulsively. There are no dues or fees.

Information, will be given by calling Leslie, 471-745 between 9 am. and 3 p.m.; or Roz. 358-5058, after 5 p.m.

PARENTS WITHOUT PARTNERS, Farmington-Southfield Chapter mem-bers, will wash cars 1.4 p.m. Sanday, Oct. 9 in McDonalds parking lot, Sew, Oct. 9 in McDonalds parking lot, Sew the and Farmington Road. Cost for the car wash is $1.50.

COUPON TRADING CLUB meets at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 10 in the down-stairs meeting room of Farmington Hills Community Library, on 12 Mile, east of Farmington Road.

The session is open to those interested in trading coupons, forms and qualifiers. Inquiries are taken by Alfreda Potrykus, 626-1681.

NORTH FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB meets at noon Tuesday, Oct. 11 in Farmington Hills Community Library on 12 Mile, east of Farmington Road.
Program for the afternoon is called "Daylillies" led by Margaret Dickson. Hostesses for the day are Joan McArdle, Milly Bilton and Marilyn Benitez.

Bentter.

Some of the club's members will be in Kalamazoo this month, taking a fifth-level course in a flower show school. Others will represent the club during District I, Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan's annual meeting in St. Clair.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, Quakertown Chapter, will meet at noon Tuesday, Oct. 11 in the Detroit home of Mrs. C. Harold Delph

Dolph.

Mrs. George Merwin, national vice chairwoman of DAR Museum, will show slides and speak about the museum, and delegates will give reports on the 83rd DAR state conference, given late last month.

Mrs. Orvis Henke will preside at the meeting. Mrs. Don P. Fairchild is co-hostess for the day.

Five prospective members have been invited to attend the meeting.

FARMINGTON KIWANIS CLUB meets at 6:30-p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 11 in Farmington Ellis Club, on Orchard Lake Road, north of Grand River. Members from Birmingham Kiwanis and several other Kiwanis clubs in the area have been invited to this meeting to hear a program by Laren White, past governor of Michigan District of Kiwanis International. White will speak on Kiwanis International, white will speak on Kiwanis International, formed 20 years ago.

Internated people are invited to call Lloyd Smith, 474-2431 for reservations.

PARMINGTON OPTIMIEST invite guests to join them for a breakfast meeting at 7:30 a.m. Wednesdays in House Tree Restaurant, 28990 Orchard Lake Road.

Lake Road.
Inquiries are taken by Dr. Jacob
Pesis, 354-0910.

PARMINGTON ARTISTS CLUB

meets at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 1 in Farmington Hills Community Library for a critique of the works of club members by Norita Freka.

members by Norita Freka.

Freka is a teacher in Birmingham
Bloomfield Art Association and Center for Creative Studies. She received a Michigan Council for the Arts grant for a master-apprentice program in 1981 that was renewed in 1982.

Her work has been accepted for exhi-Her work has been accepted for exhibition in Civerland Museum of Art, Detroit Institute of Arts, Flint Art Institute, Birmingham Society of Women Painters, the Hartland Art Show, Michigan Water Color Society and Battle Creek Art Center's traveling above.

WISER, (Widowed in Service) sponsored by Women's Resource Center, Schoolcraft Collegs, is looking for widowed people who are willing to give their time to help other widows and widowers through the grief process.

A group literview is set for 2 p.m. Monday, Oct. 17, in the center, in the college's Liberal Arts Building, 18800 Haggery Rost.

Those interested are asked to call 591-4600, Ext. 430.

A general meeting of the group begins at 8 pm. Thursday, Oct. 13 in Room B200, of the Liberal Arts Building.

ing.
George Hilton, from Mental Health Association of Michigan, will relate his professional and personal experiences as a widower.

as a widower.

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 nm. Thursday, Oct. 13 in Farmington Hills Community Library. Speaker for the evening is Dedee Swan, challwoman of the group's Garden Therapy program, and Ton Fordirski, instructional. alder for Farmington Training Center.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23355 Farmington Chapter Sand 18924. The Information must arrive before noon on the Monday before Thursday publication.

Gemini Twins open Vivace series

The Gemini Twins, international folk singers, will open Birmingham Temples eighth annual Sunday evening concert series with a gala cabaret concert Oct. 16. All concerts in the series, aponsored by the Vivace Committee of the temple, begin at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the temple, 28611 12 Mile.

meeting room of the temple, Zeoli 1z Mile.

For this cabaret concert, the ambience is one of a Paris-type bistro, with candielight, checkered tablecloths, wine and smacks.

Laszlo and Sandor Slomovitz, the Gemini Twins, have a repetoire of folk songs from many lands, some they have written themselves. Between them they play the guitar, violin, pennywhistic and a variety of percussion instruments such as the bones and lumberjacks. But their most exciting in summars are their uncannily matched volces.

atruments are their uncannily matched volces.

A gilted young classical planist from Poland, Lessek Barktiewicz, currently on a graduate fellowship at University of Michigan, will perform Dec. 4 with violatist Bortvoy Martinit-Jercie. Barktwicz is the winner of many presticular in the Winner of many presticular in the Grosse polate Plano Competitions in Europe, in the springs of "Bettle Plano Congestions" product Plano Competitions in Europe Prokeifel Plano Concert o No. 1 in D Major, which will be featured at this concert.

NEW HERITAGE String Quariet, artists-in-residence this year at the Detroit Institute of Arts, will be presented in concert March 4. This young group formed three years ago when its members were all principal players with a Canadian orchestra. Guests will be seated around small tables and can enjoy coffee and apecial desserts while the group performs a varied program of string quartets.

April 8, the Russian Balaiatas Or-chestra of Detroit will bring its 10 balaiaka ensembles in the U.S. This or-chestra is dedicated to the preservation of the music and culture of Old Russia in this country. The repertoire includes classical as well as folk music, ranging from the sad but beautiful Russian lyr-ics to the wildly exuberant gypsy dance and Jewish songs of Russian origin.

senior citizens, with individual concert ticket prices at $7 and $5 for students and seniors. Group rates are also avail-able.

nd Jewish songs of Russian origin.

Tickets for the series are $24 for on-members and $16 for students and 512 anytime.

For reservations, call Beverly Fogelson at 543-052 or Joan Rose at 543-052 or Joan Rose at 543-052 anytime.

Storytellers give lessons in their art

Registrations are being taken now for three workshops led by members of Detroit Story League given in October in Farmington Community Center.

The local league is affiliated with a non-profit national organization which encourages the creation and apprecia-tion of the good and beautiful in life and literature through the art of story-teiling.

Members prepetuate the ancient art with workshops and by answering re-quests for storytelling engagements.

All of the workshops begin at 7:30 p.m. on three consecutive Wednesdays. Participants may attend any one of them for a fee of $7, or the series for $18.

Alice McCoy will head the session Oct. 12 called "Sources and How to So-lect Stories." The workshop will deal with story sources available when probing for the approriate subject for an intended audience.

The Oct. 19 session is called "Getting and Keeping the Audience's Attention," led by Bruce Smith, who concentrates on drama as in important part of story-telling to keep listeners involved.

"Storytelling for the Child in Every-one" is the workshop set for Oct. 26 led by Violet Altschuler, who tells how to tell stories for an audience of all ages.

THE DETROIT Story League is tade up of members from throughout to city and its suburbs who meet once month in one another's homes.

Members have answered requests to tell stories in playgrounds, at luncheous and dinners, in hospitals, libraries, camps, nursing homes, in school class-rooms or aclool assembiles.

Some come in costume if that is ap-propriate; some incorporate a musical instrument, or puppets or pantomime into their repertoire.

Some are specialists, who answer requests for teiling stories to children, for example, or to a group interested in Shakespeare or history, or any other special Interest

The group does not advertise, but be-cause members have so often been called upon for their expertise by il-braries or schools, most of the engage-ments on their calendars have come by word of mouth.

The workshops the members will lead this fall are the first of their kind offered by Farmington Community Center.

Fees for the workshop are accepted in person or by mail. The center is lo-cated at 24705 Farmington Road.

A NEW INEXPENSIVE WAY TO BUY QUALITY FURNITURE

FURNITURE

Now you can buy name brand. (op quality
furniture into diroct way
at a tremendous savings, and have it dolivored, set up and serviced by a company that has 35 years in the furniture business. A company that's here in this area to serve you personally. Find out about this new way to get the kind of furniture with greater savings than you'd over expect.
Call 356-1980 new for dotalls.

HICKEY-FREEMAN

SEE THE COLLECTION OF MEN'S CUSTOM-TAILORED CLOTHING SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 11 A.M. TO 4 P.M., BIRMINGHAM Meet Mr. James Monley of Hickey-Freeman, hare to help you choose the fabrics, styling and detail you prefer in suits, sport coats, blazers, slacks and topcoats. Your selections will be hand-taillored to assure perfect fit, comfort and appearance. Please allow five weeks for delivery.

Jacobson's

Open Thursdays and Fridays until 9:00 p.m. We will validate your parking ticket.