Match-ups tight for 5th week

By Brad Emons and Chris McCosky staff writers football

"Which one of you guys took Garden City?" asked an incredulous Westland John Glenn coach Friday night.

"Nice kick," said McCosky. But that was only one of two embarrassments suffered last week by McCosky, the rookie prep prognosticator. He registered a 9-3 record to improve his season total to 30-20.

Emmons was just a shade better, going 10-1, increasing his lead to 33-18. Both prognosticators admitted that last week's games were "easy picks." They appear to be a little more difficult this week.

LIVONIA BENTLEY AT NORTHVILLE (7:30 p.m. Friday). Bentley fought hard last week, but let Stevenson off the ropes. The Mustangs, meanwhile, can run the football and they're big. Don't forget they're 3-1 and beat Glenn. PICKS - We both like Northville (no more point spreads because gambling is illegal).

WALLED LAKE CENTRAL AT LIVONIA STEVENSON (7:30 p.m. Friday). This is the first of three big games for unbeaten Central. Stevenson (3-1) has had Central's number in the past, but Central's got a new lining this season. "My scouts say they (Walled Lake) are a bear," said Stevenson coach Jack Reardon. "Their quarterback (Tom Menard) is a three-year starter, a fine runner and a good athlete." Enough said. PICKS - It's unanimous, Central wins.

REDFORD UNION AT GARDEN CITY (7:30 p.m. Friday). Both teams are struggling with RU looking for victory No. 1.

GC, meanwhile, was routed by Glenn last week. This one is up for grabs. PICKS - McCosky likes the home team, while Emmons sticks faithfully, if not regrettably, with RU.

REDFORD THURSTON AT WESTLAND JOHN GLENN (7:30 p.m. Friday). No one should underestimate Thurston, but Glenn is on a roll. The Rockets' homecoming crowd could be in for another big night. PICKS - Glenn gets two votes.

FARMINGTON HARRISON AT PLYMOUTH CANTON (7:30 p.m. Friday). There goes Canton's 500 season as the defending Class A state champs win their 18th straight game. PICKS - No doubt about it (Harrison).

LUTHERAN WEST AT CLARENCEVILLE (7:30 p.m. Friday). West was hammered last week by Country Day (40-0), while Clarenceville was blanked by Metro West Conference leader Cranbrook (31-0).

Clarenceville should win, if they eliminate mistakes. PICKS - Both like the home field.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL VS. WALLED LAKE WESTERN (7:30 p.m. Friday at Walled Lake Central). The Chargers certainly proved something last week, taking unbeaten Plymouth Salem down to the wire. Western, meanwhile, has yet to win.

Churchill, loaded with juniors, can only get better. PICKS - Both say Churchill goes, sees and conquers.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL VS. BISHOP GALLAGHER (7:30 p.m. Friday at South Lake H.S.). Gallagher was beaten on the ground and the air by Warren DeLaSalle by the tune of 35-0 last week.

CC, meanwhile, suffered a rare backyard loss to Central Division threat in triple OT. The Shamrocks, however, won't have to count their lucky pedals in this one. PICKS - CC rebounds.

NORTH FARMINGTON AT LIVONIA FRANKLIN (2 p.m. Saturday). North appears to have put its troubles behind.

Franklin's defense was porous against Thurston, despite a come-from-behind 34-28 win.

"North is tough," said Franklin coach Armand Viga. "They're better than they're record (2-3). They lost to two fine teams in Central and Salem." PICKS - North returns home a winner.

PLYMOUTH SALEM AT FARMINGTON (2 p.m. Saturday). The Rocks may have learned their lesson after escaping last week with a one-point win against Churchill.

Salem coach Tom Moshimer won't be looking past 1-5 Farmington this week. PICKS - The Rocks come down hard on Farmington, both agree.

BISHOP BORGESS VS. HARPER WOODS NOTRE DAME (2 p.m. Saturday at Garden City J.H.S.). The unbeaten Spartans must come down from Cloud Nine after posting one of their biggest wins in the school's history, a 27-24 triple OT verdict against CC.

Notre Dame can't be overlooked, losing by only four earlier this season to highly-ranked Traverse City. Borgess is celebrating its homecoming. PICKS - Both like Borgess, but not by much.

ST. AGATHA VS. HAMTRAMCK ST. FLORIAN (7:30 p.m. Saturday at RU's Kraft Field). The young Aggies played well despite losses in the last two weeks to Allen Park Cabral and Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard.

This week they should mature faster than expected, although usual paltry St. Florian has one victory already this season. PICKS - Agatha wins its second game (both experts agree).

Report stats for prep page

Beginning Thursday, Sept. 29, the Observer sports section will feature the popular Stats Page.

This page will include top girls swim times, basketball rankings, as well as scoring and rebound leaders, plus football and soccer standings.

Basketball coaches are asked to phone in their team's statistics to North Farmington head basketball coach Greg Grodzicki, Sunday and Monday evenings between 7 and 10. His phone number is 464-8830.

Swim times should be reported to Plymouth Salem coach Chuck Olson between the hours of 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. or between 2:15 and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Olson can be reached at 453-3100, ext. 295.

Soccer standings and statistics will be compiled by Paul King.

Bel-Aire gets highs, lows

In the first month of the bowling season, the Detroit area all-star leagues have set the pace for the nation and are apt to hold the honor for the rest of the year.

In the national figures just released the Stroh team that opened the season with a 3532 series in the Bonanza all-star is topping the high scores. And over on the women's side Cheryl Daniels, who rolled a 781 series to open the all-star campaign, is out in front. It is likely that her total will withstand all challengers the rest of the year.

Her scoring is in keeping with the Detroit-area women who have held big places in the national picture for several years.

Of course the little bader is Aleta Raepecki Sills, who set the national ace last year by winning the prestigious Queens' tournament in the WIBC tournament and missed repeating in the all-events by a single pins.

THE HIGH scoring duo by the women in the pro tour at Satellite Bowl recently has caused the men to switch their Detroit area appearance from Sunbrook Lanes to Satellite and will be there for a four-day show starting Oct. 27.

Meanwhile the qualifying round are under way in all houses for the $50,000 Miller Lite Open and several of the area doubles teams are contemplating making a bid for the prize.

BEL-AIRE II seems to be feast one week and famine the next in be all-star classic. For the first time in several weeks the sharp shooters failed to hit 700. The high man was Rick Capaldi of Westland Bowl, who fashoned a 691. On the women's side Myrna Hillie was high with a 247 in 656.

MERRI-BOWL Gary Gorski was high on the scoring list for the week with a 685 he bowled in the weekenders league. After posting 182 he followed with 236 and 242.

Next high was Tom Koebel with a 648 in the men's doubles. In Elliott paced the ladies doubles with a 242 in 587.

COUNTY LAYES Doris Hazemy showed the way to the women when she posted a 602. On the men's side Jerry Kelly had high single with a 288 and Norm Nickerson had a 235.

SUPER BOWL. In the race for high single game honors Denise Yellfrom had a 247 to beat out Marge Morgan by two pins.
