

Salem ousts Canton — Hawk kickers gain tie

By Paul King
special writer

Plymouth Salem won the first half and Plymouth Canton won the second in their soccer contest at CEP field Thursday.

Unfortunately for Canton, Salem won its half by a wider margin. The Rocks two first-half goals were enough to carry them to a 2-1 Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) triumph, raising their record to 7-1-1 for the season. Canton is now 4-5.

Randy Johnson's free kicks proved to be the difference, playing a part in both Salem scores. Johnson's indirect kick six minutes into the game set up Evan Nash's goal.

Twelve minutes later Johnson got the eventual game-winner on a 30-yard direct free kick.

Salem's 2-0 lead at the half was narrowed to one by Steve Morelli's blast 10 minutes into the second half. Morelli was set up by Tom Wright, who centered a free kick.

Joe Kneerl faced 10 shots in the Salem nets while David Hawkins made 13 saves for Canton.

STEVENSON 2, CHURCHILL 2: John Gelmial's second goal of the contest and 20th of the season pulled Livonia Stevenson even with Livonia Churchill Thursday at Churchill.

Chris Rose and Phil Lusater each tallied for Churchill (4-3-3) in the first half as the Chargers took a 2-1 halftime lead. They couldn't hold it, however, as soccer

Stevenson (9-2-1) got the equalizer in the second half.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL 1, RICE 0: Tom Cotter broke up a scoreless duel midway through the second half, punching home a crossing pass from Andy Rama to boost Redford Catholic Central to a Catholic League victory over Birmingham Brother Rice Friday at Bell Creek Park.

The game was a defensive battle throughout, with Rice goalie Mike Nagy handling only eight shots and CC reminder Pat Stocker just six. Bob Taglia and Don Guss sparked the Shamrock defensive effort.

On Wednesday, the Shamrocks bombed Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher, 6-1, behind Rama's three goals and one assist. Jim Moreau added two markers for CC and Jim Kowalski one. Both Moreau and Kowalski earned assists.

Stocker and Bob Sinnave divided goalkeeping duties, facing 11 shots. The Shamrocks had 29 at the Gallagher Del.

HARRISON 2, FARMINGTON 2: Each team earned half a win, with Farmington Harrison scoring twice in the first half and Farmington twice in the second Friday at Harrison.

John Sepetya notched Harrison's first goal and assisted on Wesim Bahoura's goal later in the opening half. But Farmington (5-2-2) battled back to tie it after the intermission on goal by Chris Hackman and Jon Gregory. Gregory's score came with 17 minutes left to play.

Harrison's is now 2-5-2 for the season.

FRANKLIN 2, N. FARMINGTON 1: Livonia Franklin's soccer fortunes took a roller coaster ride in this Western Lakes battle Thursday at Franklin.

The Patriots (3-6) led 1-0 at half after Brian Teraki's goal and clung to that advantage until just five minutes remained. That's when North tied it up. But just when it seemed Franklin would have to settle for a tie, Bob Newman popped in a goal with just 1½ minutes left to earn the victory. Franklin outshot North, 28-9, to earn the win.

Falcons keep on winning

The Farmington boys' cross country team improved its dual-meet record to 7-1 Thursday by edging Livonia Stevenson, 21-33.

The area's best runner, Stevenson's Ken Dubois, could not be beaten, and Farmington runners placed second, third, fourth, fifth and seventh to give the Falcons the win.

Dave Dunnebeck finished second behind Dubois with a time of 17:16. Dubois ran a 1:59.

Sophomore Bryan Lawton and freshman Chris Inch placed third and fourth with times of 17:30 and 17:36, respectively. Dan Clappison was a 17:38 and Bruce Kerr, 17:56, placed fifth and seventh.

"We are running really well," said Falcon coach Gerald Young. "We are young. There are no seniors in my top five. I think this year it's going to be between us and Salem for the division. Next year, we are going to be tough as nails."

The Farmington girls' team lost to Stevenson, 17-46, as the Spartans captured the first three places. Laura DeAngelis ran a 22:24, good for fourth place for the Falcons.

FARMINGTON HARRISON had a big day against Walled Lake Central. The boys won a 25-29 thriller and the girls won 21-34.

Junior Mike Esker (16:17) and sophomore Tom Blason (16:34) finished one and two for the Hawks, while Don Lacey (16:46), secured the victory by placing fourth.

"They knew they would have to run a super race today," Harrison coach John cross country

Schumacher said. "And they ran out of their guts."

The win pushed the Hawks' record in duals to 3-4.

The girls upped their record to 5-2 as Lauri Ruck (19:20) and Paige Cummins (19:20) ran one and two against Central.

Jenny Anderson (21:11), Tracey Brod (21:44), Andrea Bruhan (21:54) and Marcy Nussbaum (23:16) finished 6, 7 and 10 for the Hawks.

NORTH FARMINGTON, undefeated in Northwest Suburban League meets, sustained their first loss, 25-34, to league-leading Redford Union Thursday.

RU's Dave Atkins ran a scintillating 15:38 to win the race, and RU runners finished third, sixth, seventh and eighth to pull out the win.

Kirk Armstrong's 16:02 got him a second-place finish for North. Eric Bennett (16:43) and Ken Weine (16:55) placed fourth and fifth.

North is 5-3 overall, 2-1 in the league. RU is 3-0 in league action.

Hawks make it 3 straight

The Farmington Harrison swim team hadn't won a meet in two years.

Now they have won three straight. They ousted Northville last Thursday, 47-36. It was the first time a Hawks swim team has defeated Northville in five years.

Harrison got double wins from Melissa Joy and Diana Radtke. Joy won the 200-yard freestyle in a time of 2:54.5 and the 500-free in 8:55.5.

Radtke won the 50-free (24.7) and the 100-free (54.25).

Shelly Hennessey won the diving competition with 171.2 points for the Hawks.

The Hawks final first came in the 400-free relay. The team of Joy, Catherine Tucker, Helen Tucker and swimming

Radtke swam a 4:54.4.

Harrison is now 3-3 overall, 2-4 in league competition.

FARMINGTON SWIMMERS could wrestle just two events from Plymouth Salem last Thursday and fell to the Rocks, 118-64.

Laura Shaffer won three events and Krystal Taylor two to pace the Hawks.

Shaffer won the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 27.1. She also won the 100-butterfly in 1:06.1 and the 100-backstroke in 1:15.4.

Taylor won the 200-freestyle (2:13.7) and the 100-free (1:00.5).

N.J. King swam a 2:34.1 to win the 200-individual medley and Sue Bennett won the 100-breaststroke in 1:20.8.

Salem's 300-medley relay team of Lindsay Olson, Cindy Elliott, Bing and Shelly Mullen took first with a 2:09.5. And Salem's 400-free relay team of Shaffer, Bing, Taylor and Erin Broughton was with a 4:08.9.

Farmington's Katie Macintosh won the diving competition 212.85 points and Carolyn Smith captured the 500-free with a 6:02.3.

The win improves Salem's record to 2-4. Farmington falls to 1-5.
