Key week for title hopefuls

By Chris McCosky and Brad Emons staff writers

This is a pivotal week of prep foot-

This is a pluotal week of prep football for some area teams.

That goes for the expert prognosticators as well:

Some of the key match-ups could determine the state playoff picture. The beadline game is Walled Central at Farmington Harrison with better the state playoff picture. The beadline game is Walled Central at Farmington Harrison with the same shocked.

The Western Lakes foes are in opposite divisions, but this game should go along way in deciding the overall corrected champion.

That by no means counts unbeaten Plymouth Salern out. The Rocks will get their tests during the next three weeks.

The Readford Catholic Central (3-2) and blirmingsham Brother Rice (5-0). And yet another is Westland John Glenn (4-1) vs. North Farmington (3-2) for the Northwest Suburban League crown.

Last week, Emons went 10-2 to raise his season-long record to 42-20, McCooky, meanwhile, went 9-3 and is now 39-23.

Here are this week's picks.

LIVONIA FRANKLIN at RED-MORD UNION (7:10 pm. Friday). RU coming off it first win, while Franklin's Jekyll and Hyde denose goes with an RU homecoming win.

PLYMOUTH CANTON at WALLED LAKE WESTERN (7:30 pm. Friday at local control of the State Central). This is a battle of cellar dwellers.

Canton was annihilated by No. 1 ranked Farmington Harrison 55-7 last week, but the Chiefs did manage to LIVONIA BENTLEY at PLYM-OUTH SALEM (7:30 p.m. Friday). The Bulldogs surprised Northville last week, while Salem blasted Farmington. The unbeaten Rocks should be leery if it goes down to the wire because Bentley kicker Chad Darke may come to the rescue.

Bentiey Ricker Chan Dalace may come to the rescue. Salem had its first "easy" game of the year last week, but coach Tom Moshimer said afterwards, "There are no easy ones in this league." This certainly won't be easy, either. Picks — Salem gains two votes.

CLARENCEVILLE at HÁM-TRAMCK (7:30 p.m. Friday). The Tro-jans got their offense moving last week against Lutheran West, but without quarterback Matt Tyle, who was in-jured after he led Clarenceville to its first score.

first score.

Hamtramck, meanwhile, was clobbered by second place Lutheran West. Picks — McCosky goes with Hamtramck, while Emons likes C'ville.

BISHOP BORGESS vs. HARPER WOODS BISHOP GALLAGHER (7:30 p.m. Briday at GC Janlor High). The Spartans continue to roil and should make it No. 6 against Gallagher, the weakest team in the Catholic League's strong Central Division.

The only blung stopping Borgess this week is looking ahead to Rice and Warren DeLaSaile. Picks — Both like Borgess in a walk.
