

Keeping tradition

Called "A Gathering of Traditions," the exhibit and sale at Temple Beth El of Bloomfield Township from 8-11 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday will focus on art related to Judaism. Included will be some 400 works by outstanding North American artists. Shown at left are examples of the kinds of items to be sold. The tiles pictured are by Mirjana Mladinor. The traditional Hanukkah menorah (far left) is given unusual artistic treatment. The event will benefit the temple's Fine Art Fund. Admission is $2.

BROKERS WELCOME

It took a perfectionist to build The Village.

Opening of some Grand Condominiums.

Three years of planning and research. One year on the drawing board. Architects, land planners, interior designers and the Herman Frankel Organization changed and molded, added innovations, chose and discarded until perfection was satisfied.

Now you can see perfection.

Six marvelous condominiums for a perfect lifestyle. Architecture reflects the charm and detailing of another era. Touches of fieldstone, textured roofs and elegant trim are a welcome relief to the starkness so often seen. And inside... Great Rooms for multi-purpose living, exciting kitchens with European styled formica cabinets, buller's pantry, spacious baths, romantic balconies. Countless details to delight and excite. The Village is a small gem set in a pocket of privacy with the added security and services afforded by the Pebble Creek gatehouse. It is the last and most enchanting part of this established community.

It's perfect.
