

Symphony is set for opening

The Redford Civic Symphony's 1983 concert season gets under way Sunday with a special 50th anniversary tribute to Redford Township's 150th anniversary year.

The orchestra will perform the newly composed "Symphonical Celebration March" by Lincoln Naumoff at its 46th season opener 3 p.m. in the Redford Union High School auditorium at 17711 Lincoln near Curtis.

The performance is one of four Sunday concerts offered this season at Redford Union and Thurston high schools. The others are scheduled Dec. 18 and April 8, 1984, in Thurston High School with a February family concert at Redford Union. The concerts are free to the public.

Selections for the first performance will include: "The Silvana Overture" by Carl Maria von Weber; a concerto for four French horns by George Frederick Handel; "The Last Movement" from the Georges Bizet symphony; "The Coronation March from the Prophets"; "Gulltarr" by Moritz Moszkowski; and "Die Siedende Suite" by Johann Strauss.

Madonna conducts student open house

Open house for prospective students of all ages will be at Madonna College, Livonia, at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13.

The open house, which will highlight academic programs leading to associate and bachelor's degrees, is scheduled for the new lecture hall of the main academic building at the corner of Schoolcraft (R-68) and Leyan Roads. A counselor will also be present to discuss the graduate program which offers a master of science in administration degree with emphasis in either business administration or nursing administration.

Faculty named for CPA meet

Robert A. Clemente and David May of Farmington Hills are on the faculty for the November 11-13 CPA Weekend, offered through the division of continuing education, Oakland University, near Rochester.

Clemente and May, both attorneys for Baxsey, Selesko, Couzens & Murphy, will instruct the class "Novel Possibilities for Gift & Estate Tax Planning" on Saturday, November 12.

During the CPA Weekend, university faculty and professionals, expert in their respective areas, will instruct a variety of classes for CPAs to earn continuing professional educational (CPE) hours, required for state licensure each year before July 1.

RULES OF THE ROAD FOR PATIENTS WITH ARTHRITIS

Today's column will deal with ways that those of you with arthritis or back pain can make your driving more tolerable.

First, use a seat belt. Without them an accident to your car could well result in a serious injury or even death. You can't afford such further injury to your skeletal system.

Make use of mechanical aids available to help open car doors and to aid you in getting into or out of a car. If you need information on such devices feel free to call my office staff.

For comfortable sitting, bench seats are preferable to bucket seats. Bench seats are more firm and allow you to sit higher from the floor of the car.

When understanding trip of 300-500 miles or more, pace yourself not to travel more than 8 hours per day and plan to stop every hour. Stretching for even a few moments will forestall a later seque of prolonged back and joint stiffness later.

If you are a frequent long distance driver, consider a C.B. radio. It can keep you abreast of local conditions and, in case of emergencies, will allow you to summon help quickly.

The 60-member symphony is made up of residents from Redford and surrounding communities such as Detroit, Livonia, Farmington, Dearborn, Warren and Rochester.

"Playing with the orchestra provides a great outlet for performers who never became full-time musicians," said conductor John Gajec, who organized the original 12-member group in 1958.

"HIGH SCHOOL and college students are also welcome. For them, the orchestra provides invaluable experience playing with adult musicians and learning the art of accompanying solo performances. Many of these members have gone on to become music teachers or professional musicians around the state."

Gajec is constantly recruiting.

"We have good violins, brass and woodwinds this year, but we need more violas and cellos," he said. "If we could get another Grand piano or Baby Grand, we'd like a pianist. Also, a harpist and tuba player."

Gajec encouraged interested musicians to join the group at their practices in the Redford Union High School band room 8-10 p.m. on Thursdays. Two professional musicians join the orchestra for each of its concerts. Some have played with the group for years and occupy key first chairs. Their performances are financed by matching grant funds received from the Music Performance Trust Fund of the American Federation of Musicians. The remaining half is funded by membership dues paid by the Redford Township Music Society.

Because groups that get public grants are not allowed to earn a profit, the symphony does not charge admission to its performances.

THIS SEASON, Faith Amador returns as concert master. Amador, a Redford native, studied violin for 12 years with Minolta Pollack, a former Redford Civic Symphony concert master. Gajec calls Amador "an inspiration to the string section" and "extremely talented."

President of the orchestra is Redford resident David Werette, who plays the clarinet and saxophone. Werette has served as president since 1979 and has been with the orchestra for five years. He is also interim treasurer.

Bob Zimmerman, a charter member, is the associate conductor and first chair flutist and occasional saxophone player. A Redford resident, he works as a band instructor in the Farmington School District. The orchestra secretary is Francella Greene, who has played second violin with the orchestra since 1971. Greene of Birmingham is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she played with the university orchestra for two years.

The orchestra's manager for the past six years is Winston Churchill. He has played the second violin for the group since 1959. A Redford resident, he works as the local district court magistrate.

Gajec has played every instrument in the orchestra, though he prefers the violin and cello. He also often arranges and scores the music. Gajec has played with numerous area orchestras and string ensembles and is a retired orchestra director and instructor for the Redford Union Schools.
