Hills seeks link with a 'sister' city

The Farmington Hills City Council is inviting to all residents to participate in the city of Farmington Hills' 10-year birthday celebration.

The week-long celebration will start with an open house beginning at 8:30 a.m. Monday, Oct. 17, at the administrative offices. The celebration continues 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. through Friday, Oct. 21.

Residents may go to City Hall at 10 a.m. or 2 p.m. for tours of the departments. Descriptive presentations regarding the activities and functions of the departments will be provided, along with tours of the police department.

IN ADDITION, TOURS will be available at fire stations headquarters, between 12 and 13 Mile on Drake.

If there is a focus that would augment the studies of particular groups, we would be pleased to accommodate those special requests. Individuals are asked to contact Lee Bilzman at 474-6115 Ext. 231 with as much advance notice as possible to make arrangements for the special circumstances.

In addition to the open house during this week, there will be a reception held at Vladimir's of Farmington Hills on Sunday, Oct. 23. At the reception, there will be a presentation of commemorative plaques to the original nine-member Charter Commission along with a large birthday cake, hors d'oeuvres and, hopefully, a fun time for all.

AT THE END, later in the evening, there will be a sit-down dinner at the Botaford Inn, where the celebration will continue.

Among the many honored dignitaries invited will be the governor, Sen. Donald Riegle and Sander Levin, U.S. Rep. William Brooninfield, state Sen. Jack Faxon and state Rep. Wilbur Brotherton.

At a the reception, 10-year birthday buttons, along with Austrian pine tree seedlings, will be given to everyone attending.

The fee for the reception is $6 per person and for the dinner $20.

Reservations must be made in advance and can be obtained by calling the Department of Special Services at 474-6115.

City chief salutes 10-year incorporation

the other notables who contributed significantly to the formation and development of our city and deserve all of our gratitude and commendation.

I think an anniversary is an appropriate time to stop and reflect upon the past, to review accomplishments, to pay tribute, and to regret mistakes and failures. However, it is most importantly a time to contemplate the future and to determine goals and objectives for the future and develop action plans for achieving those objectives.

Now is the time for all of us to think about the future of community we want Farmington Hills to be in 1993 and beyond.

Your City Council has recently undertaken a capital improvement review program to review the major needs of our city for the next six years. This is just a start in setting our future city goals and objectives, and will be followed up with additional planning studies and programs.

We have a fine city but it cannot meet the challenges of tomorrow from a stagnant position resting on yesterday's efforts and laurels. We must move forward and we must move forward in a planned, well-conceived manner similar to the approach that contributed to our past progress.

Your council and I plan to move in this direction and we need your help, assistance and input to plan and guide our city's future growth.

Let us all pledge ourselves to working to see that our city remains the fine community we all desire. Let us plan to meet the ever-changing needs that will present themselves in the future in a way that will preserve the pleasant, attractive and yet dynamic atmosphere we all enjoy.

On behalf of your city council, I make that pledge and encourage all citizens to join us to plan to celebrate an even bigger and better 20th anniversary for Farmington Hills in 1993.

Sincerely,
Fred Hughes
