Bentley blanks Shamrocks

By Paul King
special writer

Jeff Wilkinson recorded his seventh shutout of the season as Livonia Bentley beat Redford Catholic Central 2-0 in state pre-regional boys soccer action Friday afternoon.

The win enables the Bulldogs (9-3-4) to advance to regional semifinal play against cross-town rival Livonia Churchill.

After a scoreless first half, Bentley took the lead for good when Keith Archaibault poked a loose ball in the CC crease. Dennis Patchett drew the only assist on the goal six minutes into the second half. Just four minutes later, however, the Bulldogs would have some insurance, courtesy of Patchett. That's when Bergold took over.

The Falcons netted their fifth goal of the season when both Oly goalie Pat Stocker with a penalty kick. Meanwhile, the CC offense was stagnated as the Shamrocks could muster only 10 shots for the game at Wilkinson.

The Bulldogs kept the pressure on Stocker most of the afternoon especially in the second half, when they peppered him with 16 of their 21 total shots.

The loss ended the season for the Shamrocks, which finished at 10-4-3.

Laura DeAngelis took second place, five seconds behind Salem's Shelly Simons with a 21:34.

Laura Miller (21:49) placed fifth for the Falcons. Kim Steiner (24:04) and Amy Barber (24:36) finished ninth and 10th.
