Prep acid tests

Harrison, Borgess regrouping this week

By Chris McCosky and Brad Emmons
staff writers

Unbelievable! Farmington Harrison, Westland John Glenn and Plymouth Salem lost.

Livonia Churchill, Farmington and Livonia Franklin win.

What are the prep football prognosticators to do?

Things get tougher this week. The non-league games are back on the card, but we've done a little research (we hope).

The top games: Birmingham Brother Rice visits Bishop Borgess, while Harrison and Walled Lake Central meet for a second time this season — for the Western Lakes title.

Emmons went 6-5 last week and is now 56-37 for the season, while McCosky gained some ground, going 7-4 to increase his mark to 53-32.

BIRMINGHAM BROTHER RICE vs. REDFORD BISHOP BORGESS (7:30 p.m. Saturday at Old GC West).

Rice (7-0) could well be on its way to the Catholic League playoff spot, while Borgess (6-1) is in a must-win situation.

A Spartan via coupled with a Warren DeLaSalle victory over Redford Catholic Central would throw the Catholic League's Central Division into a three-way tie. Then the playoff champ would be decided on point differential.

PICKS — Rice cooks up a playoff spot (two votes).

FARMINGTON HARRISON at WALLED LAKE CENTRAL (7:30 p.m. Friday).

The Vikings will get to prove that they're not 31 points worse than the Hawks, who won the first meeting convincingly.

Harrison will be out prove that they're still champions, despite the setback to the Churchill last week.

PICKS — Simply, Harrison rebounds.

CLARENCEVILLE at HARPER

WOODS (4 p.m. Friday). The Trojans lost a heartbreaker last week to Metro Conference leader Country Day.

This rare Friday afternoon game, however, should belong to Clarenceville. PICKS — It's unanimous, Clarenceville prevails.

GARDEN CITY at WOODHAVEN (7:30 p.m. Friday). The Cougars battled with Northwest Suburban co-champ North Farmington last week before falling 20-13.

They should have an easier way with 1-5 Woodhaven, idle last week. PICKS — GC comes back home with a win — the prognosticators agree.

HIGHLAND PARK at WESTLAND JOHN GLENN (7:30 p.m. Friday). Glenn should remember from last season that this is no pushover (an 11-7 loss).

Highland Park is 5-2 overall and lost to Suburban Athletic leader Robichaux two weeks ago 7-0.

Glenn was its outright NSL title slip away last week against Franklin.

PICKS — McCosky likes Highland Park, while Emmons goes with the home team.

REDFORD THURSTON at ROMULUS (7:30 p.m. Friday). Romulus (2-5) took a 30-6 pounding last week from the state's top-ranked Kent City — Marysville.

Before the season began, this looked like one Thurston could win. PICKS — Why not Thurston, Emmons says? Why? says McCosky, I'll take Romulus.

REDFORD UNION at WATERFORD MOTT (7:30 p.m. Friday). Mott (1-6) is coming off a 27-0 loss to Pontiac Northern, while RU is seeking its fourth straight victory after starting the season at 0-4.

The RU ground game of Don Angel, Bob Mack and Keith Manus ran wild last week against Thurston. PICKS — RU ready for another Panther win?

grid predictions

NORTHVILLE at PLYMOUTH SALEM (7:30 p.m. Friday). These two neighbors have never met on the football field.

Northville is big and strong and will test Salem's "Smurfs," but Walled Lake Central was mighty on the line, but the Rockmartin and Rick Roman should dominate.

It's Northville backfield. Steve Smith and John Quinn, piloted against Salem's offensive threats — Scott Jurek and Mark Tindall. Should be a good ball game. PICKS — McCosky sticks with Salem, while Emmons has a hunch (Northville).

WALLED LAKE WESTERN at LIVONIA STEVENSON (7:30 p.m. Friday). What a break in the crossover week for Stevenson, which gets to bypass Northville or even Churchill (which they play next week).

The Spartans' passing combo of Dan Gilmartin and Rick Roman should ride high again. PICKS — Stevenson in a rout.

LIVONIA CHURCHILL at LIVONIA BENTLEY (7:30 p.m. Friday). This is the first meeting ever between these backyard rivals.

Can Churchill, led by juniors Dave Mize and John Stollas, come down after beating mighty Harrison last week? PICKS — Say yes to Churchill two times.

DEARBORN at LIVONIA FRANKLIN (2 p.m. Saturday). Can Franklin, behind the emergence of sophomore quarterback Dave Drabicki, put another one off?

The Pats made many North Farmingtoners happy with their 14-11 win over Glenn last Friday.

Dearborn, 4-3, is coming off a tough loss to Ann Arbor Huron. PICKS — Both say nay to Franklin.

PLYMOUTH CANTON at FARMINGTON (2 p.m. Saturday). The battle for the Western Lakes basement pits winses Canton against the upstart Falcons. The upstart up and shocked Bentley last week 14-9. It was Farmington coach Don Kulick's second win with the Falcons.

Canton, meanwhile, saw its rally fall six points shy against Stevenson last week. PICKS — Emmons says the Chiefs notch win No. 1. Farmington, McCosky says, wins its second straight.

WATERFORD KETTERING at NORTH FARMINGTON (2 p.m. Saturday). The Raiders, who gained a share of the NSL title last week thanks to Franklin, will be tested by Kettering (5-3), the Greater Oakland Activities League leader.

Running back Ken Goss carried the load for the Raiders in last week's one touchdown win over Garden City. Can he do it again? PICKS — We're flying North again.

REDFORD ST. AGATHA vs. PONTIAC CATHOLIC (7:30 p.m. Saturday at RU's Kraft Field). PC likes to intimidate, but Agatha has played most of the O-Basket favorites tough.

Pontiac (5-3) has slipped somewhat after upsetting DePores, losing games to Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes and Orchard Lake St. Mary's. PICKS — PC gets by this year.

REDFORD CATHOLIC CENTRAL vs. WARREN DELASALLE (7:30 p.m. Saturday at Clarenceville). What a battle in the trenches.

Both teams will undoubtedly slug it out. CC maybe has played the state's toughest schedule, while DeLaSalle boasts an All-American tackle in 6-foot-3, 240-pound Bud Gerg. PICKS — McCosky likes CC, while Emmons rides with LaSalle.
