

Raiders top Pats — NSL crown on horizon

Raddatz sparks Hawks' victory

With its big test coming up Thursday, the North Farmington girls swim team crept closer to its goal of a Northwest Suburban League title by sinking Livonia Franklin 94-74 last week.

Thursday, the Raiders (3-0 in league dual meets and 8-2-1 overall) travel to Westland John Glenn, who are also unbeaten in the NSL.

North took eight firsts against Franklin, including wins in both relays. The 200-yard medley relay team — Colleen Carey, Marge Cramer, Kathy Pierog, and Mary Manderfield — was victorious with a time of 1:59.74.

The Raiders' 400-freestyle relay team of Cramer, Manderfield, Carey and Jennifer Rowe, won with a 3:32.8. Rowe also won the 200-freestyle with a 2:05.2 and Pierog won the 100-backstroke in 1:08.0.

Other winners for North were: Katie Harnden with a 2:39.6 in the 200-individual medley, Jody Kettentstock with a 2:25.6 in the 100-free, Jill Manderfield with a 5:31.4 in the 500-free and Julie Virginia with a 1:27.4 in the 100-breaststroke.

FARMINGTON HARRISON upped its record to 4-5 in dual meets with a 92-80 win over Livonia Churchill Thursday.

Diana Raddatz won two events for the Hawks. She swam a 2:11.90 in the 200-free and a 5:52.7 in the 500-free to win both events.

Raddatz also anchored Harrison's victorious 400-free relay team. The team, consisting of Julie Delongchamp, Helen Tucker, Melissa Joy and Raddatz, swam a 4:14.88.

Other Hawk winners were: Kim Hart in the 50-free (1:07.99) and Joy in the 100-free (1:00.09).

The Hawks will swim at Livonia Bentley Thursday.

FARMINGTON was defeated by Plymouth Canton Thursday 102-70. The Falcons have won just one meet in 10 tries this season.

Carolyn Smith took first for Farmington in the 200-free with a 2:12.9. Sabrina Callett won the 100-butterfly with a 1:04.2, and Katie MacIntosh won the diving competition with 210.60 points.

MacIntosh is the leading diver in the Observer service area.

The Falcons next meet is Thursday at Livonia Churchill.

Diana Raddatz had a big night for the Harrison swim team. She took first place in both the 200-and 500-yard freestyle events to lead the Hawks past Churchill.

Hawks, Raiders both lose

Goals by John Olson and Doug Kivcevek carried Livonia Churchill to a 2-1 boys' soccer triumph over Plymouth Salem Friday afternoon at Griffin Park in Canton Township.

The Chargers (9-5-3) played a stellar defensive game led by goalie Sam Matwinski, who got plenty of support from back-line stalwarts Mike Duckworthy, John Spaccarotella, Mike Nardelli and Chris Gluth. Center-halfback Scott Hilden also contributed to the win, according to coach John Neff.

Salem, which opened the scoring in the first half, finished the season at 11-5-2.

CANTON 4, FRANKLIN 2: The Chiefs continued their hot streak with the Western Lakes win Thursday over visiting Franklin.

Tom Wright and Steve Pedlow each scored twice for the winners, while Tim Mueller and Brian Whiteley rounded out the scoring. Wright also had two assists in the make-up game.

Canton led 2-0 at the half and outshot the Patriots, 22-4.

Franklin finished the season at 4-11 overall.

SALEM 4, N. FARMINGTON 0: Randy Johnson and Bob Bowling joined freshmen Doug Soho and Tom Hanson in the scoring column Thursday afternoon.

Salem, which cleared its bench early, outshot the winless Raiders 10-3.

Goalie Joe Knoeri, who played nearly 60 minutes, got credit for his fifth shutout of the season.

NORTHVILLE 3, HARRISON 0: Joe Mackie, Steve Starcevic and Bob Guldberg scored for the Mustangs, while goalie Jeff Metz notched his eighth shutout.

The Mustangs outshot Harrison 25-6.

The combination of Amy Austin and Laina Shaw was too much for the scrapping Panthers. The two combined for 40 points (20 each) to do RU in. Shaw and Austin each scored 21 Tuesday night against Farmington.

North blew the game open early with an 18-3 first-quarter spurt. It was 32-19 at the half and North kept increasing its lead throughout the contest.

RU's sophomore connection — Julie Marchand, Kelley Kennedy and Marie Becker — each had nine points. Marchand, according to coach Terri Anthony, pulled down 14 rebounds.

"We did a good job in controlling Marchand," said Raider coach Greg Grodzicki. Nine points is below Marchand's 13 points per game average.

"We came ready to play tonight," Grodzicki added.

He'll have to get his team equally prepared Tuesday, as the Raiders travel to Livonia Franklin. The Pats are used to beat on their home court. Just ask John Glenn.

BENTLEY 59, FARMINGTON 42: It was a tough week for the Falcons. On Tuesday they had to play the best team in the NSL, North Farmington. Then on Thursday they played the best team in the Western Lakes Division, Bentley.

Bentley pulled ahead early, 24-13 at the half, and hung on as Farmington played some spirited hoop in the second half.

Led by Alyse Fortune and Rhonda Lancaster, 16 points each, the Falcons played the Bulldogs even 14-14 in the third quarter.

Laurie Day had a big game for Bentley, scoring 33 points and grabbing 14 rebounds. Bridget Nicol and Lonnie Payne each added nine.

The Falcons are 2-12. Bentley is 13-2.

NORTHVILLE 33, HARRISON 22: The Hawks lost their 18th straight as the Mustangs' Tricia Tucker and Denise Liddle combined for 16 points. The Hawks will close out their regular season against Farmington — a battle for the WLAA basement — on Thursday.
