committee probe of charges that

King had communist ities.

Of 13 record votes on the bill, this one gave constituents probably the clearest view of senators' actual sentiment toward honoring King. That's because several senators who voted

here to waylay the bill turned around voted no.

HOLIDAY: The Senate passed, 78 for and 22 against, and sent to the white House a bill (HR 3709) establishing the third Monday 10 January, beginning in 1986, as a national holiday bonoring the birthdate of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The observance joins New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterams Day, Thanksgiving Day and christmas to become the 10th official holiday. Levia and Riegle voted yes.

POUALITY: By a vote of 22 for and 68 against, the Senate rejected an amendment to create, in place of the King holiday, an official holiday called 'National Equality Day that would fall on February 12, Abraham Liccoln's birthday.

Senators voting yes wanted National Equality Day rather than the official holiday for Martin Luther King Jr.

Levin and Riegle voted no.
