Tyndale installs new president

William A. Shoemaker will be installed as third president of William Tyndale College on Nov. 11. Shoemaker was formerly director of the Billy Graham Center at Wheaton College and vice president for research with the Council of Independent Colleges.

He has also been chairman of the Research Advisory Council of the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities since its inception.

William Tyndale College is at 12 Mile and Drake roads in Farmington Hills. A symposium for pastors and educators addressing the topic "Higher Education and the Church" will be at 1 p.m. on campus in the Kresge Chapel.

The installation service will begin at 4:30 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church of Hazel Park. Dr. John Dellenback, president of the Christian College Coalition, will present the charge to Dr. Shoemaker.

Friends of the college are invited to attend an Inaugural Welcoming Celebration for Shoemaker at 8 p.m. at the Calvary Baptist Church of Hazel Park (northbound I-75 service drive between Nine and Ten Mile).

The evening will consist of music, special presentations, a challenge from Dr. Bartlett Hess, senior pastor of Ward Presbyterian Church and a member of the college Board of Directors, and a response from Shoemaker. A cake and coffee reception will immediately follow the program.
