All interviewed by The Eccentric had good things to say about DeAr-ment. She comes across as the quintesment. She comes across as the quintes-scuilal All-Marrican woman.

The Rev. Howard Allwardt, pastor of Our Shepherd Lutheran Church, said DeArment was involved in church and school activities.

"She was active in our Parent/ Teacher League, was in church every Sunday and whenever she was asked to do anything by the Women's Guild, she would always respond," Allwardt said.

"SHE WAS very devoted to her children," he said. "It wasn't in her character to abandon her children. That just wasn't her character."

Other friends and acquaintances are also stunned by the recent turn of events.

"No way would she disappear without telling someone where she was at any time," said William Stacey, a neighbor on Wentworth.
"She would take care of our children, too," said Rosle Stacey, "She was a great neighbor to have.
"I have all kinds of thoughts running through my mind," said Karen Douthett, the neighbor who reported DeArment missing to police. "I just hope she is someplace and will be found.

the fact she was a member of the Kresge family.

"I AM NOT aware of one dime she has inherited or stands to linherit," said Hanley Gurwin, DeArment's lawyer.
"If there's a (Hannical) trust, I don't know of any trust. She wasn't aware of any trust — at least if she was aware, she didn't say so and I asked her.
"She was a young, wibrant, happy-type person and I'm very distressed," he earl.

The car DeArment drove to Farmington Hills was discovered in the farming garage Oct. 27 with keys in the ignition, Tullock said. Her prescription glasses were also in the whice.

Friends continue to hope for the best while fearing the worst.

"It would just be so sad for everyone involved if this just hung up in the air forever," said Kathy Bahura, a neighbor.

Tell me about your high gas heating bills...

and I'll tell you how some people saved as much as 20%* with Ameri-Therm*

THE PROBLEM
You have a hole in your roof.
The hole?
Your furnace vent.
Every time your furnace turnsoff, the warm air in your home is quickly lost up in the furnace vent, and on goes the furnace again, heating the air and run.
When a furnace, boiler or water heater shuts off, warm air in your home is quickly lost up the furnace vent. Energy escapes, but you still end up paying for it.
People want to save as much as they can, so I to them to keep heat inside with an Ameri-Thermit THE SOIL INTON

THE SOLUTION

Close the hole in your roof with an Ameri-Therm

Close the hole in your roof with an Ameri-I nerm-Vent Damper.

The heat of your furnace opens the Ameri-Therm* Vent Damper. When the furnace turns off, the Ameri-Therm* Vent Damper closes your furnace vent and the warm air you paid for stays where it belongs, inside your home.

The Ameri-Therm* Vent Damper is...
