

Grenada tops agenda

Hire's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes Oct. 27 through Nov. 2.

HOUSE

GRENADA: The House voted, 403 for and 23 against, to apply the 1973 War Powers Act to the recent U.S. invasion of Grenada, thus demanding that President Reagan remove all troops from the Caribbean island by Dec. 24 or seek an extension of the deadline.

The Senate was expected to follow suit and make the deadline official. It voted once for withdrawal by Dec. 24 (below), but later voided that decision.

Among House members voting yes were both supporters and critics of the invasion. Most members voting no supported the military action and did not want to limit the president's options for bringing it to an end.

Voting yes: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, Dennis Hertel, D-Detroit, William Ford, D-Taylor, Sander Levin, D-Southfield and William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.

LEBANON: By a vote of 153 for and 274 against, the House refused to force the withdrawal of U.S. Marines from Lebanon by cutting off funds for the operation.

Killed by the vote was an amendment to the fiscal 1984 defense appropriations bill that sought to end funding for the Lebanon deployment next March 1. The $237 billion Pentagon spending measure (HR 4185) later was sent to the Senate.

Supporter Barbara Kennelly, D-Conn., said "I differ with the president of the United States. I do not agree with his placement of our troops in Lebanon."

Opponent Jack Kemp, R-N.Y., said removing the troops would trigger "the renewal of a savage civil war in Lebanon, with anti-government forces aided and abetted by Syria."

Members voting yes wanted the marines in Lebanon brought home by March, 1984.

Voting yes: Hertel and Ford.

Voting no: Pursell, Levin, Broomfield.

SENATE

TELEVISION: The Senate refused, 32 for and 57 against, to expedite an effort by the three major television networks to gain financial rights to programs made for them by independent producers.

At issue was the Federal Communication Commission's proposed rule to permit ABC, CBS and NBC to acquire syndication or rerun rights to such programming. The networks seek this source of revenue to offset financial losses inflicted by pay TV and other emerging competitors.

Although on a parliamentary technicality, this vote had the effect of delaying until next May 30 or later any change in the FCC's syndication rules.

Senators voting no wanted to delay the networks' effort to gain syndication rights.

roll call report

Carl Levin, D, voted no. Donald Riegle, D, voted no.

GRENADA: By a vote of 54 for and 20 against, the Senate agreed with the House (above) that the 1973 War Powers Act should apply to the U.S. invasion of Grenada. The Vietnam-era law is intended to give Congress a degree of control over a president's decisions as commander-in-chief.

This vote occurred during debate on a debt ceiling measure (HJ Res 308) that later was defeated. The Senate was expected to reconsider the question of how long U.S. troops should remain in Grenada.

Sponsor Gary Hart, D-Colo., said the Senate should invoke the War Powers Act and "affirm congress' rightful place in matters of war and peace."

Opponent John East, R-N.C., said the Senate should instead be "commending the president for not having 'Cartierized' American foreign policy in a situation that had the potential for degenerating into another Iranian hostage situation."

Senators voting yes wanted to give the president a deadline for bringing troops back from Grenada.

Levin voted yes. Riegle voted yes.
