

North upended, must share league title

North's Amy Auetin (33) leaps high to tip a rebound to teammate Suzanne Howley (45) during Thursday's overtime loss to Garden City. The loss means the Raiders will share the Northwest Suburban League title with Livonia Franklin.

And you thought GC stood for Garden City.

No, sir, GC, in the case of Jan Moore's girls basketball team, stands for Giant Crushers.

The Cougars have brought down a Northwest Suburban League giant for the second time this season. They upset Westland John Glenn earlier this season to knock the Rockets out of first place. Thursday they defeated North Farmington, 38-38, in overtime.

The loss means North must share the NSL title with Livonia Franklin, who defeated John Glenn Thursday, 56-45. Both Franklin and North finish the NSL season with 6-2 records. Glenn finishes in third at 6-4 and Garden City is fourth at 5-5.

NORTH BUILT UP a 10-point lead midway through the third quarter and appeared to have a lock on the NSL title.

"When we came out in the second half and fell back by 10, I thought we had lost," said Moore. "But, the kids

girls basketball

kept coming back."

Two things triggered Garden City's comeback. The first was a tenacious full court press. According to North Farmington statistics, the Raiders committed 30 turnovers, most in the fourth quarter. North made just one field goal in the final eight minutes of regulation.

The second was the fervid shooting of Tammy Narraon. Narraon made 10 all scorers with 19 points. She tallied 10 in the fourth quarter.

Narraon's shooting and Garden City's press enabled the Cougars to outscore North 13-5 in the final stanza.

WITH LESS THAN a minute to play, Narraon cannot a jumper to put GC up 34-32. North came back and defense and score some points, we are OK. That's what happened tonight. We were real patient on offense. Our press really gave them trouble. That's what turned it around for us," she said.

North was hampered a bit by foul trouble. Amy Austin, North's leading scorer, had three fouls at the start of the second half and eventually fouled out with two minutes left in the OT. She scored 12 points.

"They slowed the game down, but our problem was putting the ball in the basket," said North assistant coach Greg Capling. North head coach Greg Grodzicki left for a coaches clinic after the game and couldn't be reached.

"But, you have to give Garden City a lot of credit," Capling said. "They played a very smart basketball game. They have a lot of potential. If you play their game they'll beat you."

North, 14-3 overall, will face non-league rival Birmingham Seaholm on Tuesday. Garden City (10-8) will host Wayne Memorial.

Free throws defeat Farmington

Farmington High's girls had a victory in their grasp Friday night, but Livonia Churchill stole it, converting two clutch free throws with only one second left to pull out a 46-44 victory.

It's been that kind of basketball season for the hard-luck Falcons.

With only two seconds left and the score tied at 44, Farmington's Alyse Fortune was fouled, giving the Falcons the chance to win. She was sent to line with a one and one, but missed and Churchill's Amy Brow grabbed the rebound.

It was bad enough the Falcons missed the free throw that would have won the game, but to top it off, Brow was fouled. She calmly walked to the other end of the court, dropping in both free throws to end the game.

"It was a great basketball game," said Churchill coach Roger Springsteen. "Our free throw shooting won the game for us."

The Chargers connected on an impressive 18 of 23 free throws, while Farmington managed only six of 14.

Churchill had its hands full with Farmington's Rhonda Lancaster and Fortune, each of whom poured in 20 points. Needless to say, Springsteen was happy to escape with the win.

"The two girls from Farmington are to be complimented," Springsteen said. "We made some bad mistakes on defense. We got out of position a couple of times in the fourth quarter and we were unable to stop Fortune."

Fortune kept Farmington in the game in the second half, scoring 17 points as she repeatedly converted missed shots into easy baskets.

Freshman Tracy Greenwald had an excellent game for the Chargers, scoring 11 points (including nine of 11 free throws) to go along with 13 rebounds.

LaDonna Sevakis was Churchill's leading scorer with 14.

Churchill raised its record to 8-11. CANTON 47, HARRISON 27: The winless Hawks continued their losing ways Thursday as the Chiefs erupted for 36 points in the second half to nail down the victory.
