

Jennifer Rowe, a freshman, made a big splash in her first NSL swim meet Saturday. She placed second in the 200-yard freestyle and she set a Thurston pool record in the 500-free.

North tankers tops again

"And how do you feel North Farmington?"

"We feel so-o-o-o good!"

The dynasty continues. For the fourth straight year, the Northwest Suburban League swim title belongs to the Raiders from North Farmington. They ran away from the five other NSL teams in Saturday's league meet which took place at Redford Thurston.

For North, which went 5-0 in the NSL dual meet season, the championship was its 11th since 1971.

"THIS IS GREAT because this may be my last year," said North coach Jordy Hatch, who will be getting married soon and may be leaving the state. "It's also special for my seniors. They have been champions for four straight years. That's nice."

Hatch's post-meet comments were cut short. He had an appointment under water and his swimmers made sure he kept it — they threw him into the pool.

North's 338 team points were far ahead of the rest of the pack. Westland John Glenn, led by the speedy Robina Gow, was second with 277. Garden City, despite several superb performances by Kim Dorsey, was a distant third with 157 points. Thurston, Livonia Franklin and Redford Union rounded out the field in that order.

The tone of the meet was set in the first event. North's 200-yard medley relay team of Kathy Pierog, Colleen Carey, Marge Cramer and Mary Manderfield, broke a pool and NSL record with their winning time of 1:58.7.

Seven pool records and four conference records were broken and another conference mark was equaled in the meet.

DORSEY SWAM in three events for Garden City. She set the pool and conference record winning the 200-free style with a 1:58.67, nosing out North's Jennifer Rowe by three-tenths of a second. She set a pool record winning the 100-butterfly in 1:33.489.

Then Dorsey swam the final leg of the 400-free relay. When she dove into the pool, Garden City was trailing John Glenn by about two yards. When it was over, Dorsey finished two seconds before Glenn — giving the Cougars a winning time of 3:57.8.

Gow set a pool record and tied the conference mark with her winning time of 1:05.66 in the 100-backstroke. She also took second in the 200-individual medley. But it was the Raiders' meet. They broke four pool records and three conference marks en route to the championship. Seven of 11 NSL records are held by North.

Carey, a junior, set a pool and conference record with a 2:16.20 in the 200-IM. She also won the 100-breaststroke, finishing one second ahead of teammate Marge Cramer, with a 1:11.47. That time is .19 seconds off the conference record. Cramer set a pool and conference mark in the 100-free with a 55.41.

MANDERFIELD, A SENIOR, won the 50-free with a 26.159. She just nosed out teammate Helen Sue Howard.

Rowe established a pool record in the 500-free with a 5:15.76. She had swum a 5:14.73 in the preliminary round which was better than Dorsey's NSL record time of 5:15.36 set last year. Thurston's Karen Krzywada dominated the diving competition, amassing 336.40 points, three shy of the league mark.
