

Taking Charge

Students from the Farmington School district learned all about government recently as they participated in Farmington Hills government day. Taking part were (from left, seated) Carol Kopko, Eric Sandler, acting as mayor, David Gerber, and Marie

Watch out when buying TV set for cable use

By Joanne Maliszewski
staff writer

If you are considering buying a cable-ready TV set so you can receive cable shows without subscribing to the MetroVision cable system, think again. "They do not work in this system," said Lark Samuelian, Southwestern Oakland Cable Commission executive director. "They do (work) in some systems. But we have the most sophisticated system anywhere."

At least two residents in the tri-city cable franchise area called Samuelian after purchasing the TV sets, only to find they could not receive programming through MetroVision's system.
