

Show someone why Rien Poortvliet is going to the dogs.

Give someone the complete picture on Monet's private and public life.

Have Dr. Jonathan Miller explain your body to you.

Find out where Gail Godwin gets all those stories she tells.

Find out what's so funny about Gilbert and Sullivan.

Recall all the fun you've had at the movies.

bookpeople

Chilford Mall • West Hills, N.Y. • 516-465-1500
1100 • 1000 • 1000 • 1000

The Puzzle Palace
The updated bestseller remains the first and only published exposition of our Government's National Security Agency, possibly the most secret and powerful intelligence network ever created.
$7.95

Grand Delusions
Dr. Jonathan Miller takes you on a highly detailed tour of one of Nature's most complicated and beautiful machines: your own human body. This book includes three-dimensional pop-up illustrations.
$15.95

The Human Body
This elegant biography of the world renowned impressionist artist describes his personal life. It also contains the largest selection of full-color reproductions of his work that has ever appeared in a single volume.
$67.50 until January 1st, $75.00 thereafter.

The Gilbert and Sullivan Operas
This volume sets various kinds of music against the social background in which each was created. It includes marvelous introductory work, or valuable reference, it relates the way in which social background influences musical composition.
$35.00

Great Hollywood Movies
Here, for the first time, is the creation of the crop in Hollywood movies. It's a glorious pictorial celebration of the film industry, from the early silent movies to the story of our modern T.V.
$49.50

Winners
Over 1000 wonderful paintings, drawings, posters, and lithographs illustrate the top athletes and sports events of the last 100 years. And each page telegraphs the games and lives of the athletes and the subjects. Matter that Lillian S. Hays wants to every child, in color.
$85.00

Vietnam: A History
A companion to Public Television's Vietnam: A Television History, this brilliant, unimpaired book details Vietnam's and America's agonizing connection, from the days of French dominion through the final withdrawal of American troops.
$20.00

Mr. Bedford and the Muses
The author of A Mother and Two Daughters, Gail Godwin, presents her new collection of six reflective tales.
$14.95

Monet
This elegant biography of the world renowned impressionist artist describes his personal life. It also contains the largest selection of full-color reproductions of his work that has ever appeared in a single volume.
$67.50 until January 1st, $75.00 thereafter.

Music in Time
This volume sets various kinds of music against the social background in which each was created. It includes marvelous introductory work, or valuable reference, it relates the way in which social background influences musical composition.
$22.50

Dogs
Rien Poortvliet, the artist who created Giocosa, now directs his talent, charm, and special wit to the director of our favorite four-legged friends, a must for dog-lovers, and even those of us who thought we hated dogs.
$25.00

Handmade in America
Here is a glowing report on the status of contemporary crafts in America. Its candid discussions, hands-on master craftspeople talk about their concepts, techniques, processes, and personal growth.
$49.50