Goodfellows launch annual drive

Farmington Goodfellows once again are launching its drive to make sure that "no child is without a Christmas." The group which annually collects toys, canned goods and clothes for families in need will begin its activities today with the canned food drive.

Distribution of goods will be on Dec. 17. Funds of the Goodfellows are raised mainly by solicitation and the sale of the Goodfellow newspaper. Persons interested in participating in the drive, volunteering their time or donating can contact the following persons: Chairman Chuck Bridges at 474-1515; Shirley Zimmer, vice chair at 476-8438; Pat Murley, secretary at 553-4200.

The organization hopes to help approximately 250 families, 100 senior citizens and more than 500 children this holiday season. This year's committee chairs are: Shirley Richardson, boys shirt drive;

William Prisk, canned food drive; Bill O'Conner, distribution of baskets; Nila Pilz, doll dressing; Pat Ratliff, dress drive; Dick and Donna Tupper, investigations; Chuck Schulkins, packing baskets; Bruce Habermehl, paper sales; Yvonne Singer, senior citizens and Betty McPahil, teens.

Postal tips are given

"The Postal Service wants to help mailers get the best service," Farmington Postmaster Kenneth B. Harris said today. He offered these tips for safe, timely delivery of your holiday packages.

- Address your package correctly and completely and use the right Zip Code.
- Use a sturdy container such as corrugated box for items of average weight.
- Cushion each item in the container using crumpled or rolled newspaper, plastic chips or plastic or fiberboard inserts.
- Seal your package with reinforced filament tape.
- You don't have to use wrapping paper on boxes; simply cross out old addresses and clearly print the new address on one side of the parcel.
- Ask your postal clerk about delivery times and prices for parcel post, priority mail and Express Mail. Then decide which combination of fast delivery and economy best meets your needs.
