Soviet diplomat pays visit to area family

The comment echoed remarks by deputy Soviet United Nations ambassa-dor Hitchard Oviantkov, who said on CES: "Face the Nation:" The Americans are putting first-strike nuclear weapons at the threshold of our house

KOSTIKOV ADDED: "IN this very dangerous time, when we have too many weapons at our disposal, it would be very dangerous and stupid to play with thom.

As a U.N. representative, Kostikov also refused to criticize or present his views on President Reagan and other foreign leaders.

But be had no qualma about expressing his high regard for the American people and past presidents such as Kennedy and Roosevett.

"IP YOU stop any man in the Soviet Union and ask him about the Ameri-cans, he will say good words," Kestikev we received lots of help from the United States (during World War II)."

The Russian diplomat called President Franklin D. Roosevelt "an exceptional man" and said be "liked Kennedy very much." He expressed his saidess over Kennedy's death in a letter to Murphy. She, in turn, had the letter published in a betterd newspaper.
Although Kostikov and Murphy haven't seen each other in nearly two decades, the pair converse and joke as if they were littleong friends.
Relating anecdotes from their past, they hurl werbal barbs at one another in a harmless, charming way. She calls him feat capitalist who owns homes in the capitalist who owns homes in the capitalist who was the capitalist of the Once, when they were invited to a high society cocktail party, Kostikov decided to play the atcreotypical role of a Russian comrade.

As you may know, gold saits are used in the treatment of rhoumaloid arthrills. The gold is given by injection on a regular basis for a six month period. If this trial of therapy proves successful, then gold injections are continued. But for how long?

If the patient does well with gold thorapy and it is stopped, and at a later date, the patient suffers a flare of arthrills, resuming gold does not control the arthrills. For this reason rhoundlogists are reluctant to end gold therapy, no matter how well the patient fools at the mormant.

Individuals have remained on gold for over 40 years. The patient did not mind a lifetime of commitment to this treatment, if by doing so, a re-appearance of their arthritis was prevented. Gold salt therepy is another example of how, in treating arthritis, decisions concerning treatment require communication and agreement between patient and physician.
