

Nagler show continues

More than 100 black and white and color photographs are on display in "Recent Acquisitions: Contemporary Photographs" at Detroit Institute of Arts through Feb. 5.

This is the second exhibition in the museum's recently opened Pexer and Albert de Salle Gallery of Photography and is comprised of work done since 1960.

Photography by Diane Arbus, Howard Bond, Harry Callahan, Elliott Erwitt, Ralph Gibson, Misha Gordin, Helen Levitt, Joel Meyerowitz, Nick Nizon, Bill Rauhauser, Anson Siskind, Carl Toth and Brett Weston are among the works acquired by gift and purchase for the permanent collection.

The nucleus of the exhibit is contemporary work acquired through a 1981 National Endowment for the Arts grant of $5,000 for the purchase of photographs of living artists. This amount was matched in 1982 by the Drawing and Print Club of the Founders Society of Detroit Institute of Arts.

Events relate to Cranbrook exhibit

Along with weekly gallery talks beginning in mid-January, there are many tours and a Feb. 4 symposium in conjunction with "Design in America: The Cranbrook Vision 1925-1950" at Detroit Institute of Arts through Feb. 19.

The Masterwork of the Week gallery talks, 1:30 p.m. Wednesday and Friday, will be Jan. 18, 20 with a discussion of sculpture by Michael Hall, head of the Cranbrook Academy of Art sculpture department.

At 1:30 p.m. Jan. 25, 27, Roy Slade, president, Cranbrook Academy of Art, will discuss Saarinen House dining room and other furniture.

On Feb. 1, 3, architectural drawings and models will be discussed by Charles Merz, architect, and on Feb. 15, 17, John Glick, ceramist, will speak on ceramics.

The symposium, "The Training of the American Artist: The Cranbrook Experience," featuring a panel of artists and scholars, will be held at the museum on Saturday, Feb. 4. For information, call 833-8604.

Decent-conducted tours are 1 p.m. Tuesday-Sunday. These free tours for the general public begin at the entrance to the exhibition.

Each Sunday during the exhibition there is a bus tour to the Detroit Institute of Arts to see the exhibition with stops at several Cranbrook institutions and studios generally closed to the public. The $25 includes round-trip transportation and lunch.
