

Providential

Singer-impressionist Fred Travalena, backed by the Johnny Trudell Orchestra, will do a benefit performance for Providence Hospital on Friday, Jan. 20, in Ford Auditorium. Proceeds from the show will go to the hospital's planned Perinatology Center, an obstetrical and neonatal intensive care unit for high-risk mothers and critically ill infants. Tickets are $15, $25 and $100. For more information call 552-9001.

"The Sound of Music" (1965), 8 p.m. Friday on Ch. 4. Originally 174 (frequently cut to 145) minutes. TV time slot: 180 minutes.

Julie Andrews isn't everyone's cup of sugar. In fact, her stiletto acting style can be quite annoying. But she belts out the songs in this Rodgers and Hammerstein, Oscar-winning musical of the Von Trapp family. Christopher Plummer and Eleanor Parker co-star. Rating: $2.90.

"Where Eagles Dare" (1969), about 3:20 p.m. Saturday (following the 1:30 p.m. movie, "Swashbuckler") on Ch. 7. Originally 158 minutes. WARNING — TV time slot: about 130 minutes.

"Where Eagles Dare," co-starring Clint Eastwood and Richard Burton, is one of those highly improbable, highly engaging films that you can't put down. You know the good guys — in this case, Allied soldiers who assault a German castle to rescue an American officer during World War II — are going to win. But the action, acting and pacing keep you alert and tuned in. Mary Ure also stars. Rating: $2.95.

"It Happened One Night" (1934), 12:30 p.m. Monday on Ch. 50. Original 105 minutes. TV time slot: 141 minutes.

Clint Eastwood, who stars this week in "Where Eagles Dare" and "The Gauntlet," strikes a familiar pose as Dirty Harry Callahan in "Sudden Impact."

Quick quiz: Name the only two movies to sweep Oscar Awards in the best picture, director, actor and actress categories. Answer: "It Happened One Night" and "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" (1975). Frank Capra, Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert first took the honors, followed by Miltie Forman, Jack Nicholson and Louise Fletcher 41 years later. "It Happened One Night," one of the first screwball comedies, stands as a quick-witted, resilient film of love and manners. Rating: $3.35.

"The Gauntlet" (1977), 9 p.m. Wednesday on Ch. 2. Originally 109 minutes. TV time slot: 120 minutes.

Clint Eastwood and Sondra Locke, stars of the recently released "Sudden Impact," co-star also in "The Gauntlet." There's a pattern emerging here. "Sudden Impact" is the poorest of four Dirty Harry Callahan films. "The Gauntlet" is one of the poorest films ever made. And Eastwood directed both pictures. "The Gauntlet," in fact, makes "Sudden Impact" look like "The French Connection." Could Locke be having that negative an impact on Eastwood's films? More likely, Eastwood has seen his day. Clint, tough cop movies have become passe. Pat Hingle co-stars. Rating: $1.
