Repression? Americans Haven't Really Seen It

EDITOR:

It is with considerable interest that I have read Mrs.

hardly be termed "repression."

If we would follow that to its logical conclusion, the gates of our prisons would have to be opened, because the murderes and the rapists were put there through an act of repression.

Mrs. Rughes also expressed children might someday be faced with repression. If I would take the properties that this country has devised legitimate to the properties of the p would teach them that this country has devised legitimate and peaceful means to voice dissent, such as petitioning elected officials, working and voting for candidates of your

I would also caution my children that if they abandon reason and restraint and resort reason and restraint and resort to violence, they must be pre-pared to accept the conse-quences and that they cannot hide behind the phony slogans of "police brutality" and "re-pression."

Name A School For Reuther

Editor:

I have written to the Livonia school district suggesting that the next high school in our community be named for Walter Reuther.

Walter Reuther.

As you pointed out in your recent editorial, Walter Reuther's efforts enabled many people to live in suburbs like Livonia; in a sense, the need for a new high school stems from

A Blow For The Girls

EDITOR:

I am requesting support to have a girls softball team enter into the Westland Parks and Recreation softball program for girls has been greatly neglected. Competitive sports for girls as for bobys. I now coach 50 girls from St. Bernadine Catholic Church at Ann Arbor and Merriman, Westland. It will be impossible for all these girls as for boys. I now coach 50 girls from St. Bernadine do 1s. I now see why people who are willing to volunteer to help keep our youth busy get discouraged. I have volunteered to help in any way possible to enlarge our sport program for girls as is done in Dearborn. Redford and Livonia. Why must Westland last summer, a woman who has summer, a woman who has two daughters who wanted to play ball would have been left out if she had not volunteered to form another team to accommodate them and other tream in the Livonia Parks and Recreation program. Example: Westland Darshall league for girls still was going by of rules. Betroit and Wayne schools were already using experimental rules. This lack of interest hindered a group of girls took to an open tournament for basketball in Detroit.

Detroit.

Last year in August I took a group of girls to an open tournament for softball. Only one other team from this area was entered. It was from Wayne. This lack of interest is unnecessary. So is the lack of civic, pride. I may be 30, but the gap in communication is not with the young.

I don't mean that Terry Harbson of Westland Parks and Recreation has been com-pletely uncooperative. I just

Welling Seeks County Post

Date W. Welling of 13969 Lyons, Livonia, has announced as a candidate for the Wayne County Commission seat being vacated by Cari Pursell of Plymouth.

He will run for the Republi-can nomination for the 26th District post which represents Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Canton Township. He is the first to announce.

Pursell, also a Republican, has entered the State Senate race for the seat currently held by Sen. George Kuhn (R-14th District) of Birmingham.

Welling owns Tri-State Pub-cations, a Dearborn advertising and public relations com-pany. He has lived in Livonia for the past eight years and has served on the Livonia Human Relations Commission.

He has worked with Little League baseball and Boy Scouts. Welling served in the U. S. Army intelligence corps.

No stranger to conservative politics. Welling served as a key campaign aide to former Livonia mayor Harvey Moelke and assisted the successful Livonia school board candidacy of John Stymelski. a postman serving out of the Redford Township post office.
