For New

Members

The Livonia Entertainment Guild is looking for new members and will welcome them at a luncheon to be held at noon, Friday, June 5.

The luncheon will be held at the home of Mrs. Pat Kirksey, 32710 Barkley, Livonia.

New members are needed to help with ticket sales, to help at the two yearly performances planned by the Guild, and to look for new talent.

The Guild is a non-profit organization, which with the Livonia Public Libraries, brings live, quality entertainment to the community for children. All tickets are 50 cents, and any profits at the end of the year are given to the library.

All interested are invited to attend the luncheon to become acquainted and to help in making plans for the coming season.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Kirksey at 425-6594 or Mrs. Jean Laviolette, 425-0546.

OPERA STAR--Cornell MacNeil will play Scarpio, head of Rome's police department, when the Metropolitan Opera appears in Detroit. "Toxco" and MacNeil will be seen in the Saturday afternoon matinee, May 30, at 1:30 o'clock. Tickets are still available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, Detroit. The company is appearing in the Masonic Temple, Detroit, May 25 through 30.
