Frank Rikert, Who Left Illinois for California in Covered Wagon in 1864, Wouldn't Take $100 for Bottle of Tanlac.

Frank Rikert, well-known resident of North Sacramento, Cal., who came to the state from Illinois in a covered wagon in 1864, along with other hardy pioneers, recently exhibited a bottle of Tanlac, which he had just purchased, to a friend at his home and remarked: "If I thought this was the last bottle of Tanlac I would ever be able to buy, I wouldn't take one hundred dollars for it," thus proving the high valuation he places on the famous treatment.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Marshall—Frank H. Good, who for 65 years lived on his farm in Fredonia township near here, died last week. He was 83 years old.

Holland—A $150,000 club house will be erected at Citawa Beach, to take the place of the hotel which burned last fall, according to word received here.

Ann Arbor—Nearly one half of the $1000 hotel set by the committee in charge of raising funds for the student friendship drive, on the University of Michigan campus, had been raised last week.

Lansing—Private residences lose immunity from search warrants if they are places of public resort or if used for unlawful manufacture, or sale of intoxicating liquor," the state supreme court ruled recently.

Ann Arbor—Dr. Carl V. Weller, of the medical school of the University of Michigan, has been made a full professor in pathology in the school and assistant director of the pathological laboratory. It has been announced by Dean Hugh Cabot.

Lansing—The state administrative board has authorized Auditor General O. B. Fuller to pay back bonuses on noxious animals and birds to 80 counties, amounting to $111,000. It is expected additional claims from the counties which have not submitted reports will run the amount up about $5,000.

Albion—Albion's 1924 city tax rate will be $1.40 on each $100 assessed valuation, or an increase of 15 cents over that of 1923. It was announced recently. Several extras including $22,000 for paving and $15,000 for equipment and maintenance of a new city hospital are reasons given for the increase.

Lansing—The eighteenth annual convention of the Michigan Threshers' Association was held in Lansing. Represented at the convention were farmers who had a part in the threshing of $1,840,000 bushels of grain, beans and clover seed in 1923. Besides the programs of address and business there were exhibits of machinery.

Detroit—Wayne county taxes collected during 1923 totaled $9,893,093.55 against a tax levy of $10,905,600.25, leaving a delinquency of $1,012,506.63. Judge Freivald, county treasurer, has announced. This establishes a new high record of collections, 90.21 per cent. Mr. Freivald stated. The county paid to the state the sum of $3,540,000. Collection fees amounted to $3,572.25.

Lansing—Trucks travelling the truck line and country roads of the lower peninsula, south of the line between Saginaw and Muskegon, will be limited to one-half the full carrying capacity until further notice. It has been ordered by Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner. The order was issued because rains and thaws have softened the roads in all that part of the state.

Monroe—Sister Mary Loyola, known by hundreds of Detroit women and others who are graduates of St. Mary's college here, died recently at the convent here. She had been a member of the congregation of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary since 1871. For 46 years she had been intimately connected with St. Mary's academy as the head of the department of expression.

Ann Arbor—More than 14,000 numbers of American newspapers of the nineteenth century and nearly 5,000 volumes of nineteenth century papers have been added to the William L. Clements library and the general library of the University of Michigan. The additions of these volumes makes the Clements library possess what probably is the most complete collection in the United States, outside of the Congressional library.

Detroit—After physicians at Recently Hospital here had examined the injured Frank Burey, 51 years old, a structural iron worker, suffered when he fell three stories while working on the steel frame-work of the new Book-Cadillac Hotel, landing on a concrete pavement, Burey announced he was going back to work—and he did. A lacerated scalp and contusions to his back and ribs were the injuries the doctors discovered. No bones were broken.

Marquette—Following an outbreak of rabies in Negunee, Ishpeming, Republic, Champion and Michigan (the State Commissioner of Agriculture, at the request of the health department, has ordered a strict quarantine on dogs in Marquette, Ishpeming and Negunee and 10 townships in Marquette County, and one township in Baraga County. Several persons in Ishpeming and Negunee have been scratched and bitten by diseased dogs, but there have been no deaths.

Benion Harbor—Michigan's peach crop prospects for 1924 have been reduced at least 25 per cent, possibly 35 to 40 per cent by winter injury to buds, according to conservative estimates made here by growers and pomologists who attended the recent convention of the Michigan State Horticultural society. The other fruits grown in the state are not believed to have been injured. The peach situation was reported to be serious, especially in southwest Michigan where most of the orchards are located.

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY

For a nice dinner, which may be spread over several days the following meal will be found economical:

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb.—Place the lamb taken out neatly and fill the cavity left with stuffing made of bread crumbs, raw oysters, using a cupful of crumbs and a dozen oysters.

chopped fine, a tablespoonful of melted butter, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley and the same of onion juice. Season with salt and pepper. Skewer the stuffing within the meat carefully and stuff in a covered pan. Prepare the gravy by adding a tablespoonful of melted butter to one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, same of onion juice and onion bouquet. Baste the meat liberally with this sauce before taking it from the oven, then let stand in the oven five minutes longer. Serve on a hot platter garnished with fried potatoes. Serve with sauce in a gravy boat.

Pea Pancakes.—Drain the liquid from a can of peas and rub them through a sieve or colander and mash to a paste with butter. Season well and add two well-beaten eggs, one cupful of milk and just enough flour to make of the right consistency for griddle cakes. Fry on a hot griddle.

If the family likes kidneys this will be enjoyed:

Kidneys Sauteed.—Split each kidney, wash, trim off all fat and cut into quarters. Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan. Roll the kidneys with salt and pepper, roll in flour and fry in hot butter. Turn often while they are cooking. When they are a nice brown place on a hot platter and pour around the fat after seasoning it with catsup, onion juice and a dash of jelly, all boiled up once before serving.

Oyster Omelet.—Chop a dozen oysters. Make a sauce of a tablespoonful of oil and butter; add three tablespoonfuls of cream, a pinch of soda and the same amount of liquor, strained. Season well; add the oysters and bring to the boiling point. Cook the omelet, cover with the oyster sauce and serve hot.

Browned Mince of Beef.—Chop the remains of yesterday's beef fine and mix it with one-third as much mashed potato; season well with pepper, salt and onion juice; moisten with a little of the gravy or butter and hot water. Mix well, turn into a baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake twenty minutes in a hot oven.

Others shall take patience, courage to their heart and hand, Froth thy hand and thy heart and thy brave cheer, And God's grace fructify through thee to all.

—E. B. Browning.

GOOD THINGS FOR OCCASIONS

A salad is always a welcome dish, and the following dressing will be enjoyed on lettuce:

Russian Dressing.—Beat one-half cupful of French dressing, using six tablespoonfuls of oil with two of vinegar. Salt, paprika to taste. Add gradually this dressing into a half-cupful of mayonnaise, beating with an egg beater.

Chili Sauce and Fold in one-third of a cupful of cream, whipped. Season well with chopped green and red pepper, onion juice, parsley and chopped cucumber pickle.

Apricot Sponges.—Soften one tablespoonful of gelatin in one-quarter of a cupful of cold water, then add one cupful of apricot pulp and juice, heated hot, add one-quarter cupful of sugar; stir until the mixture thickens, then fold in the whites of two eggs, stiffly beaten. Serve with whipped cream. Prunes are good used in the place of apricots.

Cheese and Chicken Dish.—Rub the yolk of one hard-cooked egg to a paste with a tablespoonful of olive oil or butter. Add one teaspoonful of salt, one of made mustard, one of granulated sugar and one-quarter teaspoonful of cayenne. Mix with two cupfuls of grated cheese and one cupful of chopped chicken. Press into scallop shells or ramekins and bake just long enough to become hot and the cheese melted.

Made Mustard.—Into four tablespoonfuls of dry mustard beat one tablespoonful of salt oil. Mix well, adding enough vinegar to make a smooth paste, then add a teaspoonful each of white pepper, onion juice and sugar. Beat hard and long to mix well, then bottle. This mustard equals the best mustards in the market, at a very little cost.

Another Salad.—Take one cupful each of cooked peas, peanuts finely minced, one-half cupful finely minced good-dressed pickles and the same of chopped ripe olives. Add a good well-seasoned hot dressing, mix well and serve on lettuce.

Your doctor advises internal cleanliness

HE will tell you that the first results of constipation—headache, sleepless nights, biliousness, backache, etc.—warn that the body is flooded with intestinal poisons. In time these poisons may cause the breakdown of health and lead to serious disease. In constipation, say intestinal specialists, lies the primary cause of more than three-quarters of all illness including the gravest diseases of life.

Hence, doctors urge internal cleanliness—regular and thorough removal of food waste from the body.

Laxatives Aggravate Constipation

Laxatives and cathartics do not overcome constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition and often lead to permanent injury.

Why Physicians Favor Lubrication

Medical science, through knowledge of the intestinal tract gained by X-ray observation, has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage out of the body. Thus Nujol brings internal cleanliness.

Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot grip. Like pure water it is harmless.

Get rid of constipation and avoid disease by adopting the habit of internal cleanliness. Take Nujol as regularly as you brush your teeth or wash your face. For sale by all druggists.
