VACATION SCHOOL PUPIL BREAKS INTO VERSE

A poem written and recited by Gladys Wood, aged 12, at the "Commencement" of the Baptist vacation school last year.
"At Daily Vacation Bible School"
At school we have just, so much fun.
We skipped and played and sometimes run.
Make baskets, frames and seats,
And lots of things that can't be beat.

And sometimes learn a little verse,
Which we must every day rehearse.
But just the same its lots of fun
So come and join us every one.
The baskets large and small we make,
And pictures frames that home we take.

Are useful at home as well as school.
While the boys make seats for chairs and stool.

So why stand by and let it pass,
A time for young and old at last;
A time to join in our song,
A time to join our happy throng.

Remember this school opens on Monday, July 7th at 9 to 11:30
and continues four weeks.
