

GC Church Is Scene Of Wedding

Judith Ann McCombie and Bradley Allen Nordquist were united in marriage May 26 in the Garden City Presbyterian Church with the Rev. R.R. Rives officiating for the double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. McCombie and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Nordquist are the bridegroom's parents. Both families live in Garden City.

WHITE SATIN brocade fashioned the bride's street-length gown. With it she wore a chapel veil and carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses.

JAY MCCOMBIE, brother of the bride, was best man. For the occasion, Mrs. McCombie wore a royal blue dress with yellow accessories. Mrs. Nordquist wore yellow with white accessories.

A buffet dinner reception for 75 guests was served in the Nordquist home following the ceremony. The couple will live in Westland.

In a ceremony on her parents' 25th wedding anniversary, Lynne Susan Watzke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Watzke of Charter Crest Road, Farmington, was married to Marshall Evan Balman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Balman of Valleyview Avenue, Farmington.

The Rev. George Ramsey officiated at the April 25 rites in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington. Each pew was decorated on the center aisle with candleholders trimmed with greens, pink velvet ribbon and baby's breath, for the candlelight ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of antique satin faille, with long puffed sleeves, a high neckline, and a train. Her dress was trimmed with white daisies and she wore a small fitted cap made of daisies and a short veil.

HER MAID OF HONOR was Patricia Meyer of Harper Woods and her matron of honor was Mrs. Linda Watzke of Detroit. The bridesmaids were JoLynn Balman and Lorraine Williamson.

All wore identical gowns of spring green crepe with long puffed sleeves, high necklines and empire waists. They carried French bouquets of spring flowers.

The flower girl, Tracey Ansteth, wore an identical dress and carried a miniature bouquet.

STEVE STEELE of Detroit was best man, and Mark Watzke of Detroit, David Cornwell and Terry Wik were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a silk shantung ensemble and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of pink silk shantung. Both wore matching street-length coats.

A dinner for 225 guests was held in the Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills. The couple spent their honeymoon in Washington, staying in the Roger Smith Hotel, where Mr. and Mrs. Watzke stayed on their honeymoon 28 years ago.

The bride attended Alma College and Wayne State University. The bridegroom is now studying at Oakland Community College. Both are graduates of Farmington High School. They will make their home in Farmington.
