Community Spirit

Through the mist of the past, filling the pages of history is the War for Prince, while woven into the romance and fiction of the centuries, is the Merchant Prince. Great was the Warrior Prince, but greater the Merchant Prince.

Now comes the Community Spirit, to whose softening influence, ruthless individualism gives way and mutuality of interest finds place.

We, a local industry, are playing the role of this Community Spirit, by offering to buy your grains and sell you back the products made therefrom.

Commissioner

CASSIUS J. CRAWFORD

What "Cass" Crawford Has Done For You.

It's time for everybody in Oakland County to realize the debt we all owe to "Cass" Crawford.

For a good many years this quiet, determined Oakland County farmer has been leading us toward Good Drainage. And every man, woman and child in the county is today better off in health and in wealth, because of "Cass" Crawford.

He has averted possible epidemics. He has turned swamps into garden spots and healthful home sites.

He has increased land values by amounts far greater than the sums entrusted to him to spend.

He has protected our credit.

He has gotten for us honest value for every dollar we have invested in his program.

He has made Oakland County nationally famous for its system of modern, enclosed, concrete sewers—planned to take care of future, as well as present, needs.

In a position of highest trust this able, Christian gentleman has shown always the thrifty uprightness of his Yankee forbears.

Here is the man who conceived, began and should complete this whole great public benefit—a native of Oakland County who knows our soils and how to handle them.

Let's keep "Cass" Crawford on the job, driving his humble Ford up and down our highways on this vital task!

Look for the name on the County Republican ballot Sept. 9th, for Drain Commissioner, Cassius J. Crawford!

(Mr. Crawford has had no part whatever in this advertisement. It has been prepared and paid for by men who know his modesty and appreciate the value of his services to Oakland County.)
