Seventh Grade

Ruth Allan, Henry Mahaney, and Verla Jean McCafferty, have perfect attendance records.

Miss Frank

Miss Stewart is still away.

The class has formed a club called "The Civics League," and have chosen two colors as their symbols.

Freshmen

They have had a class meeting at last and have elected some of their officers, who are: Frank Finley for president and Howard Catherman for vice-president. The secretary, treasurer and members of the Student Council are still to be elected.

Sophomores

On Monday, a name was chosen for the high school column in the Enterprise. Among the names offered were, "The High School Bugle," "The High School Jennie," "The High School Explosion," "The High School Exposition," "The High School Almanac," "The High School Clarion," "The Eagle," and "The F. H. S. Broadcasting Station." The last one was chosen, and it was decided to shorten it to "Station F. H. S."

Juniors

The Juniors are hoping the children of Farmington will not forget to see Santa and bring their letters to him Saturday afternoon, December 6, at the High School gymnasium.
