JAN. 13—"WANDERERS of the WASTE LAND"

Zane Grey's desert scenes, plains and hills in color, with Jack Holt as the central figure.

JAN. 20—"CAPPY RICKS"

Thomas Meighan in a new and happy role.

JAN. 27—"DULCY"

Constance Talmadge in the adventures of a delightful dumb-belle.

FEB. 3—"WHEN A MAN'S A MAN"

Harold Bell Wright's best seller as a great picture of human interest out in the lands of the setting sun.

FEB. 10—"SUNDOWN"

A second "Covered Wagon." A tale of the cattle country. Real drama and comedy.

FEB. 17—"THE ENCHANTED COTTAGE"

Richard Barthelmess enchants the heart and charms the eye of alky who see him and his cottage.

FEB. 24—"MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE"

Rodolph Valentino and Bebe Daniels make Booth Tarkington's romantic tale a picture of great beauty.

MARCH 3—"ABRAHAM LINCOLN"

A tale of the man whom every American loves. Lincoln in romance, adventure and humor.

MARCH 10—"MERTON OF THE MOVIES"

One of the skillful pictures of 1924. Glenn Hunter leads the way in 6,000 feet of fun.

MARCH 17—"THE MAN WHO FIGHTS ALONE"

A man-fights-alone-and-wins.

MARCH 24—"ICEBOUND"

Richard Dix and Lois Wilson bring strength and beauty into a thrilling picture.

MARCH 31—"THE BACHELOR DADDY"

An amusing story of a bachelor who was required to take a family of live, squirming youngsters across the continent. Thomas Meighan did it. But—

Society's Outlook

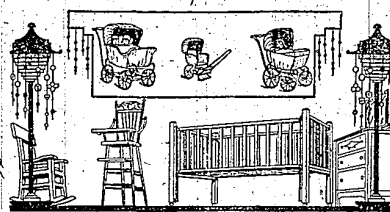

The word "pariah" is used to mean an outcast or one despised by society. This is not what the word meant originally, since pariah was not an outcast nor the lowest in caste rank, but member of a low caste in southern India and Burma, just below Sudra rank.
