Early Navigators Dared Perils of Every Sort

Perils of Every Sort

It is a little more than 400 years ago since man made his first-known trip around the globe. The first voyage took three years, and they were years of great privation and discomfort. The early successful nevigator was J. S. deil Cano, a Spaulard. He returned to port on September 6, 1622. The expediction numbered five vessels, and of the 250 ploneers who set sail only 31 returned—ragged and broken. One of the jobjects of the adventure was to test, it to theory that the earth was round; and the ships took a westward course to discover a passage to the Indian form of the control guese, after whom the straits are named, was a leiding spirit in the expedition. When the task was almost exceeding listed he and 40 others were seed in listed he and 40 others were the straits of the control of

Health and good looks

IF YOU do not keep clean internally your looks and health are undermined together. A clogged intestine breeds poitogether. A clogged intestine breeds poisons that reach every part of the body. These poisons ruin the complexion and undermine health. Constipation brings on such ailments as headaches, billious attacks and insomnia, each of which sape your health and vitality.

Avoid Laxatives-say Doctors

Laxatives and cathartics do not overco constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition.

Medical science has found at last in Inbrication a means of overcoming con-stipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water, it is harmless.

Take Nujol regularly and adopt this habit of internal cleanliness. For sale by all druggists.
