

"WHY BUY INVESTMENTS THROUGH THE FARMINGTON STATE SAVINGS BANK?"

A friend asked us this question.

The answer is that most people haven't time to make a thorough investigation. It takes time to find out which bonds yield the most, are safest, and most readily sold in emergency.

When you buy through the "Farmington State Savings," our investigation assures you safety, ready marketability, and good return.

Sunday, March 28 is

"Fanny Crosby Memorial" Sunday, and all hymns sung will be those written by her. She wrote more gospel hymns than any modern hymn writer and it is in her memory that this day is being observed by many of the churches of our land. Come and join us in the service of song.

The annual banquet of the First Baptist Church will be given on the evening of Thursday, April 2, at 6:30 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend, and enjoy the banquet with us as well as the equally interesting attractions to follow.

The tickets are 50 and 35 cents. At that price everyone in and around Farmington should feel able to come and enjoy an evening with us in the home-like church.

On account of the banquet there will be no luncheon served at noon that day.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Clarenceville
