LEADERS MEETING

Eleven leaders were present at the Walled Lake High School, Tuesday, April 21, at an all-day meeting to take their third lesson in the clothing course which was given under the direction of Miss Williams, clothing specialist of the Michigan Agricultural College Extension Service, assisted by Miss Dundas, Home Demonstration Agent.

This lesson was very interesting and instructive on the different tailored pockets, tailored button holes, neck finishes and a discussion of dress materials, selection of clothing with reference to texture, principals of colors, etc.

Each leader has a group of five to ten ladies to which she is responsible for teaching what she learns at the training meeting. The next lesson will be the one-hour dress. Any woman interested in the work who wishes to enroll may do so by communicating with any of the leaders.

The Walled Lake leaders are: Mrs. Lloyd Coe, Mrs. Smith Green, Mrs. Jessie Power, Mrs. Frank Pennell, Mrs. Grace Heliker, Mrs. H. C. Moss, Mrs. Frank Van Acker, Mrs. Harry Avey, Mrs. J. A. Beveraux, Mrs. Frank Denio and Mrs. Arthur Green.

NOVI SCHOOL NOTES

(Too late for last week)

The regular meeting of the Novi Parent-Teacher Association was held at the town hall on Wednesday, April 8. Mrs. Sturman acted as president. After the regular business meeting, the boys and girls had a spelling contest. Marian Shinn was the winner. The speaker of the evening was E. J. Lederle, commissioner of schools.

Mr. Lederle told of the beginning of public education and the purpose of education today. The school first, should work to develop a strong physical body in the boy or girl; second, it should train his mind; third, it should educate him in a social way, so that he may be able to meet people; fourth, the school should train the pupil to be trustworthy and to develop his moral nature.

Several very interesting reports were given on the "Rural Meet" at Pontiac.

The last P. T. A. meeting of the school year will be held on May 13. Let everyone in the community turn out.

Miss O'Connor, our helping teacher, will visit us on Thursday. She will give an arithmetic test and a spelling test.

Only five weeks left of school for Novi. Four weeks till seventh and eighth grade examination.

Eighth grade have finished all their books and are now reviewing.
