

COUNTY INTER-SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE

The first annual Oakland County Young People's Inter-Sunday Conference continuing the twelfth Annual County Olds' Boy's Conference will be held at the Pontiac churches, Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25.

The following is the program: Friday, 4 to 6 p. m. Registration; opening session. "A Way of Preparation."

Saturday a. m. Joint breakfast; parallel boys and girls sessions. "Lighting the Way."

Saturday p. m. Special recreation features; closing banquet and program. "Who go the Highway."

Each Sunday School is entitled to as delegates two girls, two boys, ages 16 to 24 years, and two adult leaders from each Sunday school. Additional delegates by special arrangement.

One dollar covers expenses of conference, entertainment over night and admits to Saturday night banquet. All who attend conference must register.

The conference is promoted by the Pontiac and Oakland County Council of Religious Education, co-operating with the County Y. M. C. A. and State Council of Religious Education.

COUNTY ROAD AID

The State of Michigan has definitely abandoned its policy of paying state awards on county roads. The Senate approved unanimously Rep. Kirby's bill which permanently appeals those sections of the old general highway law which provided for payment of such awards. Passage of the Kirby bill will not affect in any way the approximately $6,000,000 of delinquent awards now due to the counties and townships.

FARMINGTON BOY FINISHES
M. A. C. DAIRY COURSE

Roland Wissusik of Farmington was one of the thirty-six men to finish the dairy production course which finished recently at the Michigan Agricultural College. This course as one of the numerous branches of study offered in practical agriculture during the winter at the state college.

Men enrolled in the M. A. C. short courses availed themselves of all the privileges of regular students, both athletically and socially. Basketball, wrestling, boxing, weekly literary programs and other forms of amusement gave the short course men an intimate contact with the college.

Courses in dairy production, ice cream making, horticulture, poultry, veterinary science, bee-keeping, farm engineering, and trucks and tractors offered a wide range of subjects from which men, with a few winter weeks at their disposal, could choose.

NEW BULLETINS SHOW
ORCHARD PRACTICES

Details of correct orchard management are explained and illustrated in three extension bulletins just off the press at M. A. C. These pamphlets, which cover some of the most common operations in the orchard, are popular editions of more complete and technical publications issued by the college earlier.

"Orchard grafting," showing by illustration details of handling this important operation, is covered in one of the new bulletins. Another discusses "Fertilizing the Mature Orchard," and a third covers "Pruning Black Raspberries."

The bulletins, all edited by members of the horticulture department at the college, may be had by writing to Bulletin Clerk, M. A. C. East Lansing, for extension bulletins 28, 29 and 30.

PROPOSED GAME LAW
GETS SET BACK

The department measure revamping the game laws met with a set back by the Legislature Friday when Rep. J. M. Harris launched an attack against it. As the bill came from the senate it took from game wardens the right to search hand baggage or the person. This was made necessary as the attorney general had expressed the fear the entire act might be invalidated sometime by persons protesting the arbitrary methods of the wardens. Rep. Harris proposed an amendment that would remove from game wardens the right to act as prosecutors in their own cases.

During a heated debate Rep. Harris charged that game wardens hold their jobs primarily by reason of the arrests they make and that to delegate to any man the power to prosecute his own cases is an authority that threatens the institution of American freedom. The bill was laid on the table pending further amendments.

NEW BODY FOR FORD

As a delivery unit to meet requirements for equipment lighter than that of the ton truck, the Ford Motor Company has just added a pick-up body to its commercial car line.

The new body is designed for use on the Ford runabout, taking the place of the rear deck, and is well adapted to all kinds of light hauling and quick delivery. The runabout seat affords comfortable riding for the driver and there is ample room for another passenger. Full protection against inclement weather is provided by the top and side curtains.

The new body is of all steel construction and sturdily built. It is 3 feet, 4 1/2 inches wide and 4 feet, 8 inches long. Sides are thirteen inches deep to the flare, so that loading space is sufficient to meet all demands of light delivery. The end gate is the same as that on the express type body of the ton truck and when partially lowered is securely held in place by chains.

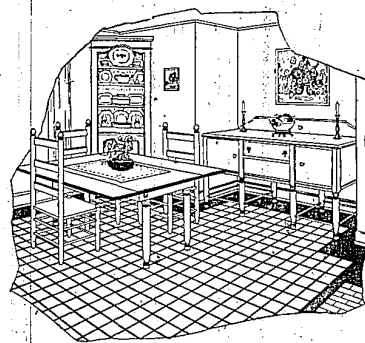

Virgil: "I'd like to old man but I promised faithfully to meet mine at 7:00 o'clock sharp."

TAKING THE WORK OUT OF HOUSEWORK

There are homes where washing, ironing, sweeping and such like domestic tasks are still done at the cost of tired hands, of aching backs, of weary muscles—homes where health is weakened and pleasant leisure denied by never-ending demands upon the time and strength of the housewife.

In these households it is apparently forgotten that electric appliances for washing, ironing and dish washing; for cooking, housecleaning and various other domestic tasks can be bought on convenient terms and used with great gain in health and happiness.

Call at our office and take a look at some of these work saving appliances.
