Old Roman Alphabet

In the ancient Roman alphabet there was no letter "U," and "V" was used to convey the sound. From that grew the "W" (double you) which was formed by joining two "Vs." It has become more or less a custom to use the old Roman alphabet in carving.

Now, That Was Strange

Nellie had been taken by her mother to a woman's club luncheon and on being asked by her father what she had seen there, replied: "I saw Mrs. Smith wouldn't eat potatoes and Mrs. Armstrong wouldn't eat potatoes." "But, why?" questioned father. "Oh, they said potatoes would make them fat, but do you know, every one of them was fat already."—Liberty.

Famous "Dunmow Flitch"

In the town of Dunmow, Essex, England, Robert Fitz-Allter offered, in 1244, to present a flitch of bacon to married couples who would take oath that they had never once during the year wished themselves unmarried and had avoided a quarrel. It was not until 1645 that the flitch was awarded for the first time.

What Is Leisure?

Often those who are loudest in their demand for "more leisure" do not understand what leisure is. Mere cessation from work is not leisure. Time-killing is not leisure. Nothing which merely passes time, without producing mental, bodily, or spiritual satisfaction, is worthy to be called leisure. The spice of leisure is variety.
