FORMER LOCAL TEACHER
TO WED DETROIT MAN

The following interesting item of news appeared in a recent issue of the Lansing State Journal:

Miss Nellie Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walton, 311 N. Francis street, entertained twelve guests at bridge, Wednesday evening, to announce her engagement and forthcoming wedding to Thomas E. Holliday, of Detroit.

In the living room and dining room, bowls of roses and sweet peas were used, while miniature colonial corages were given to the guests during the evening, containing the announcements.

Miss Walton has been a teacher in the Kalamazoo Street school for the past two years, and Mr. Holliday, who is the son of Mrs.

T. H. Holliday, of Jamesville, N. C., is in the real estate business in Detroit.

The wedding date has been set for June 30.

Fred Kerr of Detroit visited Monday with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr. The brothers received word Sunday of the death of another brother, William Kerr, in Arizona.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Maurice Graham wish to thank their many friends for the beautiful flowers, plants, fruit and candy sent to Maurice during his illness; also the letters of sympathy and the lovely box of candy sent by the Seniors.

Our City Will Certainly
Look Different Next Fall

We have made a list of many old homes which can be beautified, modernized and made more salable by making a few alterations and additions.

Civic pride has prompted many owners of these old homes to come in and look over our book "Old Homes Made New." Before long you will see wonderful changes made in these old homes and the general appearance of our entire city will be greatly improved by next fall.

No doubt, you have desired an extra room or two, a new porch, a radio room, etc. Come in and let us advise with you on these changes.

Lay This Improvement Over the Large Picture—Note the Difference.

Cut out in outline the picture below and place it over the old home shown above. Move it about until in position and then notice the wonderful transformation.
