

3 Area Congressmen Back Voting At Age 18

WASHINGTON Observer area congressmen helped win passage of the 18-year-old-vote measure.

U.S. Reps. Jack McDonald (R-19th District) and Marvin Esch (R-2nd District) had to resist their own party leader, Rep. Gerald Ford (R-Grand Rapids) to do so.

U.S. Rep. William D. Ford (D-15th District) had no such conflict with Democratic leadership.

Rep. Esch, in fact, served as a floor leader on the GOP side for the bill.

All three local congressmen also voted against a key procedural move to return the bill to conference committee. Had this tactic succeeded, sponsors believe the 18-year-old-vote provision would have passed without a direct action.

The nation to vote in elections after Jan. 1, 1971. It faces a possible U.S. Supreme Court test of constitutionality, but provisions were made to obtain that ruling speedily.

President Richard Nixon signed the bill into effect Monday, but cautioned that the Supreme Court test must still be hurdled.

A new telephone social service for residents of Wayne County outside of Detroit proper was announced by George Corcoran, director of the Wayne Planning Division, United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit (UCS).

The new telephone service enables residents to receive immediate help on "where to go for health, welfare and social problems" by dialing a new toll free number, 1-800-532-1183.

PERSONS CALLING will be helped by Community Information Service, a department of UCS.

This unit provides experenced social work counselors and trained volunteers to "diagnose" the problem and to "prescribe" one of the many community agencies best equipped to help.

Whether the problem is an aged father, or a disturbed child, a faltering marriage, or eviction from a home, a disabled employee, or a destitute medical patient, the UCS Community Information Service offers prompt, confidential assistance to all—without charge.

The most frequent calls come from people who need personal counseling, nursing care in the home, facilities for the aged, psychiatric treatment for children or adults, legal aid, day care, adoption, carrying facilities for children, and financial aid.

The new telephone service available toll-free by UCS for Wayne County residents outside Detroit proper is a Torch Drive Service.

Won't Back Zak -- Vandermolen

"I'll be fighting to reform Wayne County government by trying to reduce extravagant commissioners' salaries."

And I'll be fighting against political bossism represented by the former mayor of Livonia and the Zak Park.

With those rappers, unshathed in an interview with Observer Newspapers, Larry Vandermolen, 30, launched his battle for nomination in the Democratic primary for 26th District Wayne County commissioner.

He and two other Democrats and two Republicans want the seat representing Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, and Canton Township on the county board being vacated by Commissioner Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth).

VANDERMOLEN, A New Democrat Coalition (NDC) "Peace" member, will oppose Robert Dwyer of Plymouth, chairman of the regular Democratic Party 2nd District, and John J. McAnn, Livonia attorney, for primary votes Aug. 4.

Vandermolen said he believes an $8,000 annual salary for county commissioners is sufficient.

He said for this he would willingly attend two weekly meetings and put in homework.

Vandermolen will be wearing a variety of hats this summer. He is a political science instructor at Schoolcraft Community College and is serving as vice chairman of the Faculty Forum negotiating team.

He is vice president of the Michigan Association of Political Scientists and a member of the Pi Gamma Mu national social science honor society.

He holds a masters degree in political science and a bachelor's in social science from Western Michigan University. He and his wife, Lyndalee, and their three children live at 18355 Jamestown Circle, Northville.
