"FRIENDS OF THE POLITICIANS"

The fact that Eddie Weisman and his three pals shot their way out of the Marquette prison is conclusive proof that Eddie knew what he was talking about when he remarked upon his capture that it was an easy thing to smuggle weapons into the prison.

Just so long as "friends" of politicians are given positions of trust in penal institutions it will be easy to smuggle guns and dope into them. Just so long as "friends" of politicians are appointed to any position having to do with law enforcement, just so long will enforcement be made a farce.

"Friends" of the politicians are turning out of prisons about as many crooks and thugs as the courts are turning in. Fully fifty per cent of the thugs captured so far this year have records reading something like this:

"John Doe, bandit, prison record. Convicted in 1923, sentenced one to ten years. Paroled, 1924."

COMMUNITY ADVERTISING

From time to time the editor has taken it upon himself to advocate an advertising campaign for Farmington. Perhaps some of the readers of the Enterprise imagine that he has some personal interest in this—that he will gain something. But such is not the case. Any campaign to advertise our city, would not be of benefit to the editor, for none of the advertising could sensibly be placed in this publication.

The position we have taken in this is simply due to the belief that Farmington is worth advertising—that it can be sold by advertising just as shoes or flour or any other commodity can be so marketed.

A WEALTHY EDITOR

An editor started life a poor man and just retired with a fortune of $50,000. He won his success by hard work, thrift, and a bequest from an uncle who left him $49,990.

A GOOD HEATER

Paper can be used in keeping one warm, says scientists. "Yea, that's so," remarks a Farmington man. "I remember a ninety day note that kept me in a sweat for three months."

THE PEACE

After watching the results of the war to end war for six years, we are beginning to believe that the Versailles peace was a peace to end peace.

HASN'T SEEN ENOUGH

A British visitor says Americans rush around a lot and get nowhere. But he hasn't as yet visited a justice court or a hospital on a Monday morning.

STILL WITH US

The fool who used to rock the boat is still with us. He is the same guy that tries to cut around in a traffic jam.

AN INVESTMENT

Don't think of every dollar you spend in Farmington as expense. It is an investment in a better town.

MUSIC TO PLAY PART

IN FARM DAY PROGRAM
Music will play a prominent part in the entertainment side of the program for the eighth annual Farmers Day at the Michigan State College on July 31 according to tentative plans announced this week by the committee in charge.

In addition to the band concert, which has been and annual feature of the day, a big community church choir singing contest will be staged. The preliminaries of the singing contest will be run off in the morning, with finals at the general meeting in the afternoon.

Business and recreation are to be mixed in even portion at this year's Farmers Day. The picnic lunch under the beautiful campus trees at noon, the interesting horse pulling contest, and the various musical features will all contribute to the entertainment of the day.

Serious side of the program will not be missing, however, and farmers who attend the big roundup will find plenty of useful and instructive features. Inspection of the extensive experimental fields in the morning will occupy the time of the visitors. Definite routes will be mapped out so that things of chief interest to the individual may be reached early. In addition, outdoor exhibits based on timely agricultural problems in the various departments of the college work, will be displayed on the campus.

Climaxing the whole day will be the general meeting in the afternoon. The whole Farmers Day crowd will gather around the speakers stand in the campus to hear state and national farm leaders discuss vital problems, and to hear the musical numbers on the program.

CLARENCEVILLE SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The annual Sunday School picnic of the Clarenceville Community Church will be held on Saturday, July 11 at Walnut Lake. Great plans have been made for a wonderful day. Games of all kinds for everyone. Ball game, etc. Prizes. Everyone bring the basket lunch. Children will be conveyed. Meet at the church at 8:30 sharp.

Liners of every description in The Enterprise will sell, rent or buy anything you want.

HERMAN TIMBERG RETURNS TO VAUDEVILLE STAGE

Herman Timberg, one of the most popular comedians in vaudeville, features the bill at Keith's Temple Theatre, Detroit, starting Sunday matinee, July 12. Mr. Timberg has been absent from vaudeville for several years, during which time he has been writing and producing his own shows and starring or being featured in big musical productions by other managers. He is author of such well-known musical plays as, "On Fifth Avenue," "On the Mezzanine Floor," "Four Queens," "A Joker," and "Chicken Chow Mein."

Mr. Timberg's present offering consists of excerpts from his various musical hits. "The Rebellion" with Sammy Timberg is another feature on the bill for the week. "The Rebellion" is a melo-low satire on the present jazz craze and includes, Leo Chalzel, Virginia Roche, Wm. Pike and the Survivor's Orchestra with Sonia Meroff. Leo Beers tells crisp stories, sings odd little songs and plays great skill at the piano. Billy Arlington, a big Detroit favorite, assisted by Ede Mae, C. I. Taylor and Joseph Ward offers "Mistakes, Will Happen." Warren O'Brien, in "Bits of Eccentricity," Kate and Wey, in athletics; Van Horn and Inez, sensational roller skaters and the pictures.
