GLORY, HALLELUJAH
 Look! Who's coming forward to kneel in the penitential row! Nothing less than the whole population of Herrin, Ill. They have seen the error of their way and are flocking with bowed heads to the chance rail.

Clubs, guns and the rope failed to bring peace to that community and only served to increase the evil. It remained for the story of the Nazarene, whose ways are paths of peace, as told by an earnest evangelist, Rev. Howard S. Williams of Hattiesburg, Miss., to calm the turbulent spirit of the people of Herrin.

It is a new and much different report that now comes out of that city:
 "Bootlegging, gun toting and gambling which has been ascribed as the cause of much of the strife here are but a memory and the law breaker and the abiding have joined hands in common purpose—that the force of righteousness shall again reign supreme."

"More than 160,000 persons have attended the 7 weeks revival, and approximately 400, including some of the county's worst characters have 'hit the trail' under the simple religious tenets expounded by the 'Mississippi thunderbolt!'"

DRYDEN AND ITS SWIMMING HOLE

Dryden, Lapeer county, with fan fare and big eats, just celebrated the return to that village of Gen. George O. Squier, who remembers that there was located the house where he was born with its "little window where the sun came peeping in at morn."

The town for the day was submerged in a sea of delightful sentiment. The old swimming hole loomed large in the storied pictures of the past and in it was seen the naked, boyish forms of many Draytonians now grown to manhood.

The changes about the old swimming hole were probably more noticeable to General Squier than to his old swimming mates who stayed at home on the farms. The picture he carries in his mind is no doubt more faithful to the subject as it was than early impressions which have been blurred by many exposures.

PETS COME HIGH

Most of us had expected anyway that Oakland county would get soaked for Gov. Alex's pet wider Woodward—Holly Herald.

When the cost of Woodward avenue widening is totaled up there will be less heard about 204 super-highways at public expense for benefit of real estate speculators.

Oakland county supervisors appreciate a good thing and have appropriated $1500 for the Milford fair.

An exchange remarks that pavement dances are a good thing and can be made a success. Yes, for the shoe manufacturers.

BANKERS WILL FIGHT BANDITS

Members of the Illinois Bankers' Association have doubled membership dues under a plan of reorganization, in order to pay a reward of $1,000 for every bank bandit captured or killed. "We have perfected a plan for successfully coping with bandits," said Secretary Graetinger. "In every county," he added, "a vigilance committee has been organized which will cooperate with the sheriff. Our association supplies the firearms and ammunition to organized forces in every city and hamlet, and these men will also be supplied with automobiles in order to more successfully compete with the evildoers who have been making the lives of bankers and bank employees miserable and banking a hazardous occupation."

A Liner in The Enterprise will sell almost anything.

TO HEAR MANY FAMOUS MUSICIANS
 Charles A. Sink, secretary-manager of the University of Music, Ann Arbor, Mich., has just made announcement of the concert activities for next season. The list of attractions includes many of the world's greatest artists; and organizations in several of the most pretentious series of concerts ever undertaken in Ann Arbor.

In the Forty-seventh Annual Choral Union Series the following six attractions are included:

October 15—The New York Symphony Orchestra, Walter Damrosch, conductor.

November 9—John McCormack in song recital.

November 23—The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Victor Kolar, conducting, Ossip Gabrilowitsch piano soloist.

December 26—Walter Gieseking, piano recital.

March 8—The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, conductor.

In the Seventh Annual Extra Concert Series the following numbers will be given:

November 14—Ernestine Schumann-Heink, song recital.

December 7—Cecelia Hansen, violin recital.

January 11—The Hinshaw Opera Company in the "Elisir of Love" by Donizetti.

Hazel Huntington, soprano.
 Eleanor La Mance, mezzo-contralto.

Thomas McCranahan, tenor.
 Leo de Hierapolis, baritone.
 Francis Tyler, bass.

Willard Sektberg, pianist.
 February 26—The London String Quartet.

James Levey, first violin.
 Thomas W. Petre, second violin.
 H. Waldo Warner, viola.
 C. Warwick-Evans, cello.

April 7—The St. Olaf Lutheran Choir.
 F. Melius Christiansen, conductor.

In the Annual Faculty Concert Series, twelve programs will be given by members of the faculty of the University School of Music. Included in this course will be four concerts by the University Symphony Orchestra, Samuel P. Lockwood, conductor.

The Third Annual Series of Twilight Organ Recitals will be given on each Wednesday afternoon during the academic year by Palmer Christian, university organist.

The Thirty-third Annual May Festival will take place about the middle of May and will consist of six concerts, four evening programs and two matinees. The University Choral Union conducted by Earl Vincent Moore will include in its presentations Mendelssohn's "Elijah" and at the closing concert will offer in concert form "Pagliacci and Cavalleria Rusticana."

Numerous other recitals will be given during the year by professional students in the school.

Pianist With One Arm
 Count Giza Zedky, noted Hungarian pianist and composer, although he has his right arm in bandaging when he was fourteen years old, studied the piano under the best teachers and became a virtuoso.

Surgical Advance
 The progress of surgery has improved as far as the surgeon no longer carries a scalpel on his boot-tongue.

NOTICE

To Home Builders!

My prices and terms are $2,000 below the reach of competition.

If you have a contractor who will equal my terms he may build for you on Valley View or Prospect avenues. Competitive bidding invited.

A home on Valley View avenue will also be a good investment!
